Lost Girl Of The Sudan:

Lost Boy, Lost Girl John Bul Dau, Martha Arual Akech, 2010 One of thousands of children who fled strife in southern Sudan John Bul Dau survived hunger exhaustion and violence His wife Martha endured similar hardships In this memorable book the two convey the best of African values while relating searing accounts of famine and war There s warmth as well in their humorous tales of adapting to American life For its importance as a primary source for its inclusion of the rarely told female perspective of Sudan s lost children for its celebration of human resilience this is the perfect story to inform and inspire young readers Lost Girl of the Sudan A. Russo, 2005-04 Two Sudanese children Bok and Marta sent by their mother to a village market are captured by rebel soldiers and separated from each other Lost Girl of the Sudan is the story of their plights Bok sold as a slave and working on a farm fears for his life and escapes with a dozen other boys Marta is brought to an army captain s home where they intend to sell her as a slave Their lives become entangled in a horrid plot orchestrated by the son of a Nazi officer This thriller captures the science and mystery in an international plot similar to Robin Cook s Chromosome Six What They Meant for Evil Rebecca Deng, 2019-09-10 Many stories have been told about the famous Lost Boys but now for the first time a Lost Girl shares her hauntingly beautiful and inspiring story One of the first unaccompanied refugee children to enter the United States in 2000 after South Sudan s second civil war took the lives of most of her family Rebecca s story begins in the late 1980s when at the age of four her village was attacked and she had to escape What They Meant for Evil is the account of that unimaginable journey With the candor and purity of a child Rebecca recalls how she endured fleeing from gunfire suffering through hunger and strength sapping illnesses dodging life threatening predators lions snakes crocodiles and soldiers alike that dogged her footsteps and grappling with a war that stole her childhood Her story is a lyrical captivating portrait of a child hurled into wartime and how through divine intervention she came to America and found a new life full of joy hope and redemption Dark Exodus Beverly Parkhurst Moss, 2008 The civil war which broke out in Sudan in the early 1980s left hundreds of thousands of Sudanese Southerners dead The dispossessed victims who survived often had to trek hundreds of miles to reach overfilled poorly constructed refugee camps Of the few female refugees who received passage to other countries a handful ended up in the Dallas Texas metroplex Dark Exodus is a collection of sixteen women s heartrending stories of struggle and survival in a time and place of utmost turmoil and tragedy Page 4 of cover The Longest Journey Peter Browne, 2006 Over the past five years more than 25 000 Africans have arrived in Australia under the federal government s humanitarian resettlement program Some have spent a decade or more in refugee camps in remote regions of East Africa years of inadequate food enforced inactivity and the threat of violence Hundreds of thousands are still stranded in the camps Australia is one of only a dozen western countries that resettle refugees but how fair is the resettlement process Does it always help the neediest of all refugees Reading the World's Stories Annette Y. Goldsmith, Theo Heras, Susan Corapi, 2016-08-11 Reading the World s Stories is volume 5 in the Identity and Power in Narratives of Displacement Katrina M. Powell,2015-02-11 In this book Powell examines the ways that identities are constructed in displacement narratives based on cases of eminent domain natural disaster and civil unrest attending specifically to the rhetorical strategies employed as barriers and boundaries intersect with individual lives She provides a unique method to understand how the displaced move within accepted and subversive discourses and how representation is a crucial component of that movement In addition Powell shows how notions of human rights and the public good are often at odds with individual well being and result in intriguing intersections between discourses of power and discourses of identity Given the ever increasing numbers of displaced persons across the globe and the layers of displacement experienced by many this study sheds light on the resources of rhetoric as means of survival and resistance during the globally common experience of displacement
