Losing the Empress David Creighton,2000-09-01 The Empress of Ireland s last voyage ended on May 29 1914 when she was rammed by a Norwegian coal carrier in a fog patch on the St Lawrence River near Rimouski For David Creighton her voyage still continues In Losing the Empress Creighton delves into the lives of his grandparents Salvation Army officers who were lost on the Empress and the lives of their five orphaned children who would soon be plunged into World War I His discoveries reveal amazing details about the Empress which sank in fourteen minutes with a greater loss of life than the Titanic disaster Shipwreck nostalgia last voyage dinners Salvationists the British Empire and the world wars fought to preserve it everything comes into focus when the author joins Titanic discoverer Robert Ballard on a film shoot at the sunken liner s site Losing the Empress lyrically traces a personal journey into the past and into the future Shipwrecks Nigel Cawthorne,2005-07-27 Ships have been overwhelmed by huge waves consumed by fires broken apart sunk by storms and driven onto uncharted rocks They have collided with icebergs or other ships been sunk by enemy torpedoes or gunfire or run aground on unlit coastlines at night Boilers have exploded Magazines have ignited Cargoes have shifted with catastrophic consequences and submarines have submerged never to come up again Shipwrecks selects the sinkings with the greatest loss of life the most famous vessels the richest treasure troves the most archaeologically significant wreck sites and the most daring rescues It tells the tales of the fate of the victims the disastrous mistakes made by ships captains and navigators the impossible conditions faced at sea the courage of those who survived and the audacious attempts to raise what now lies at the bottom of the sea The New Face of War Bruce D. Berkowitz,2010-05-11 As American and coalition troops fight the first battles of this new century from Afghanistan to Yemen to the Philippines to Iraq they do so in ways never before seen Until recently information war was but one piece of a puzzle more than a sideshow in war but far less than the sum total of the game Today however we find information war revolutionizing combat from top to bottom Gone are the advantages of fortified positions nothing is impregnable any longer Gone is the reason to create an overwhelming mass of troops now troop concentrations merely present easier targets Instead stealth swarming and zapping precision strikes on individuals or equipment are the order of the day based on superior information and lightning fast decision making In many ways modern warfare is information warfare Bruce Berkowitz s explanation of how information war revolutionized combat and what it means for our soldiers could not be better timed As Western forces wage war against terrorists and their supporters in actions large and small on several continents The New Face of War explains how they fight and how they will win or lose There are four key dynamics to the new warfare asymmetric threats in which even the strongest armies may suffer from at least one Achilles heel information technology competition in which advantages in computers and communications are crucial the race of decision cycles in which the first opponent to process and react to information effectively is almost certain to win and network organization in which fluid arrays of combat forces can spontaneously organize in multiple ways to fight any given opponent at any time America s use of networked elite ground forces in combination with precision guided bombing from manned and unmanned flyers turned Afghanistan from a Soviet graveyard into a lopsided field of American victory Yet we are not invulnerable and the same technology that we used in Kuwait in 1991 is now available to anyone with a credit card and access to the Internet Al Qaeda is adept in the new model of war and has searched long and hard for weaknesses in our defenses Will we be able to stay ahead of its thinking In Iraq Saddam s army is in no position to defeat its enemies but could it defend Baghdad As the world anxiously considers these and other questions of modern war Bruce Berkowitz offers many answers and a framework for understanding combat that will never again resemble the days of massive marches on fortress like positions The New Face of War is a crucial guidebook for reading the headlines from across our troubled planet

The Titanic Eugene L. Rasor, 2001-09-30 Promoted as virtually unsinkable the ultimate luxury liner the largest ship in the world the RMS Titanic sank on its maiden voyage in April 1912 taking some 1 500 people to their death Aboard the ship were the wealthy and famous as well as hundreds of immigrants seeking a new life in America The most dramatic marine disaster of modern times the Titanic tragedy captured the interest and imagination of the entire world The intensity of interest in the catastrophe has increased particularly after discovery of the wreck off the coast of Newfoundland in the mid 1980s The resulting literature is vast including both scholarly and popular sources Covering more than the published literature the book also surveys memorabilia artifacts cultural icons music film and exhibitions Divided into three sections the work opens with a historiographical survey of the literature then includes descriptive lists of more peripheral material and concludes with a bibliography of 674 entries All items covered in the historiographical survey are included in the bibliography This useful guide will appeal to researchers both laymen and scholars interested in the Titanic
