Therion, EXISTENCE as we know it is full of sorrow To mention only one minor point every man is a condemned criminal only he does not know the date of his execution This is unpleasant for every man Consequently every man does everything possible to postpone the date and would sacrifice anything that he has if he could reverse the sentence Practically all religions and all philosophies have started thus crudely by promising their adherents some such reward as immortality No religion has failed hitherto by not promising enough the present breaking up of all religions is due to the fact that people have asked to see the securities Men have even renounced the important material advantages which a well organized religion may confer upon a State rather than acquiesce in fraud or falsehood or even in any system which if not proved guilty is at least unable to demonstrate its innocence Being more or less bankrupt the best thing that we can do is to attack the problem afresh without preconceived ideas Let us begin by doubting every statement Let us find a way of subjecting every statement to the test of experiment Is there any truth at all in the claims of various religions Let us examine the question Our original difficulty will be due to the enormous wealth of our material To enter into a critical examination of all systems would be an unending task the cloud of witnesses is too great Now each religion is equally positive and each demands faith This we refuse in the absence of positive proof But we may usefully inquire whether there is not any one thing upon which all religions have agreed for if so it seems possible that it may be worthy of really thorough consideration It is certainly not to be found in dogma Even so simple an idea as that of a supreme and eternal being is denied by a third of the human race Legends of miracle are perhaps universal but these in the absence of demonstrative proof are repugnant to common sense But what of the origin of religions How is it that unproved assertion has so frequently compelled the assent of all classes of mankind Is not this a miracle There is however one form of miracle which certainly happens the influence of the genius There is no known analogy in Nature One cannot even think of a super dog transforming the world of dogs whereas in the history of mankind this happens with regularity and frequency Now here are three super men all at loggerheads What is there in common between Christ Buddha and Mohammed

Book Four Aleister Crowley, 2018-09-10 Hitherto we have spoken only of the mystic path and we have kept particularly to the practical exoteric side of it Such difficulties as we have mentioned have been purely natural obstacles For example the great question of the surrender of the self which bulks so largely in most mystical treatises has not been referred to at all We have said only what a man must do we have not considered at all what that doing may involve The rebellion of the will against the terrible discipline of meditation has not been discussed one may now devote a few words to it

Ruthven, 2024-03-29 Both a commentary on and a critical appreciation of the work of the early Pound. It starts off with a lucid introduction to Pound's technique in general and to his imagist phase during which the poems commented on in this book were written in particular. In the critical passages Mr Ruthven steers a sage middle course between the attitudes of uncritical adoration and wholesale rejection that mar so much of the literature on Pound: informative without being pedantic and exhaustive without being long-winded. To turn to Mr Ruthven's Guide is to follow in the footsteps of an intelligent, sensitive, and reliable scholar. English Studies. Four Books of Magick, 2021-11-09 This is the masterpiece of occultist, magician, and philosopher Aleister Crowley, introduced for the first time by one of the world's leading experts on Western esoteric traditions, Stephen Skinner. Do what thou wilt. Written in the early twentieth century, the four books contained within this collection make up one of the most complete and groundbreaking works on the practice of magick ever written. They are considered to be the masterpiece of occultist, magician, and philosopher Aleister Crowley and the core texts for the religion of Thelema. Their influence on alternative Western thought and philosophy cannot be exaggerated. Also known as Book Four or Liber ABA, the four parts bring together many rituals, received texts, theorems, and unequalled insights into the practice of magick, culminating in The Book of the Law, the central sacred text dictated to Crowley by a preternatural entity. Anyone interested in yoga, ceremonial magic, esoteric thought, invocation, divination, and beyond, or those looking to delve into the fascinating, playful, and illuminating writings of a unique man, will find inspiration. For the first time, one of the world's leading experts on Western esoteric traditions and magic, Dr. Stephen Skinner, introduces the text, sharing his insights into Crowley's take on yoga, ceremonial magick, and Thelema. His long involvement with magick, both as an academic and as a practitioner, enabled Dr. Skinner to highlight the differences between the psychological and the spirit-orientated approaches to magick and to show how that dilemma shaped Crowley's practice and his founding of Thelema, enlightening the reader to many previously unknown connections. The Classic Collection of Aleister Crowley.
