John P.L. Roberts, the CBC/Radio Canada, and Art Music Friedemann Sallis, Regina Landwehr, 2020-10-15 This book examines the impact of the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation Society Radio Canada CBC SRC on the development of art music in Canada during the broadcaster's first fifty years 1936-1986 In so doing it investigates the achievement of one man John Peter Lee Roberts Born in Australia he arrived in Canada in 1955 and over the next thirty years he worked tirelessly as a producer administrator and adviser at the state broadcaster to bring the music of Canada to the world and the world of music to Canadians Roberts also played a crucially important role in commissioning disseminating and promoting new music by Canadian composers North of America Asa McKercher, Michael D. Stevenson, 2023-07-15 In 1941 influential US publishing magnate Henry Luce declared the world was in the midst of the first great American century believing his nation held the power and vision to lead and transform the world What did a newly outward looking and hegemonic United States mean for its northern neighbour North of America is a sharp eyed volume providing a unique look at postwar Canada bringing to the fore the opinions and perceptions of a broad range of Canadians from consumers to diplomats jazz musicians to urban planners and a diverse cross section in between As they grappled with issues including constitutional reform transit policy national security the arrival of television white supremacy and postwar domesticity Canadians were ever mindful of the unfolding American experience and its influence Victor Feldbrill Walter Pitman, 2010-11-08 This is an account of the life and cultural contribution of one of Canadas most talented conductors He was known for his limitless enthusiasm and support of Canadian music and young musicians as well as for his insistence on playing music by Canadian composers The Juggler of Notre Dame and the Medievalizing of Modernity Jan M. Ziolkowski, 2018-10-31 This ambitious and vivid study in six volumes explores the journey of a single electrifying story from its first incarnation in a medieval French poem through its prolific rebirth in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries The Juggler of Notre Dame tells how an entertainer abandons the world to join a monastery but is suspected of blasphemy after dancing his devotion before a statue of the Madonna in the crypt he is saved when the statue delighted by his skill miraculously comes to life Jan Ziolkowski tracks the poem from its medieval roots to its rediscovery in late nineteenth century Paris before its translation into English in Britain and the United States The visual influence of the tale on Gothic revivalism and vice versa in America is carefully documented with lavish and inventive illustrations and Ziolkowski concludes with an examination of the explosion of interest in The Juggler of Notre Dame in the twentieth century and its place in mass culture today In this volume Jan Ziolkowski follows the juggler of Notre Dame as he cavorts through new media including radio television and film becoming closely associated with Christmas and embedded in children s literature Presented with great clarity and simplicity Ziolkowski s work is accessible to the general reader while its many new discoveries will be valuable to academics in such fields and disciplines as medieval studies medievalism philology literary history art history folklore performance studies and reception studies A Bibliography of Robertson Davies Carl Spadoni, Judith Skelton Grant, 2014-08-01 Robertson Davies 1913 1995 one of Canada s most distinguished authors of the twentieth century was known for his work as a novelist playwright critic journalist and professor This descriptive bibliography is dedicated to his writing career covering all publications from his first venture into print at the age of nine to works published posthumously to 2011 Entries include each of Davies signed publications and those pseudonymous or anonymous writings he acknowledged having written Included are his plays novels journalism academic writing translations interviews speeches lectures unsigned articles and editorials films audio recordings and multimedia editions Also listed is a generous sampling of unsigned articles and editorials Using Davies archives and the archives of other authors organizations and publishers Carl Spadoni and Judith Skelton Grant present A Bibliography of Robertson Davies to serve the research demands of Canadian literature and book history scholars

The Dundurn Group The Dundurn Group, Art and Politics Sarah Jennings, 2019-10-17 The year 2019 marks the fiftieth anniversary of the National Arts Centre In this new and revised edition of Art and Politics Sarah Jennings covers the highs and lows of Canada's most important national performing arts institution over the course of five decades bringing the story up to the present Art and Politics is a riveting tale of Canada's finest musicians actors and dancers and efforts to put their art at the forefront of both the national and the international scene Through over 150 interviews with artists top officials senior politicians and others who affected the fate of the National Arts Centre the book recounts the organization's early years the impact of government monies first lavished and then withdrawn which resulted in its near collapse in the late 1990s and how over the past two decades its CEO Peter Herrndorf a gifted leader has brought it back from the brink The most recent transformations revealed by this new edition include the architectural makeover of the organization's brutalist style building in Ottawa responses to the changing cultural milieu in Canada and the launch of a national Indigenous Theatre Department in the fall of 2019 Told through the voices of those who created the organization Art and Politics affirms that the National Arts Centre embodies its motto Canada is our stage

Mapping Canada's Music Helmut Kallmann, 2013-05-25 Mapping Canada's Music is a selection of writings by the late Canadian music librarian and historian Helmut Kallmann 1922-2012 Most of the essays deal with aspects of Canadian music but some are also autobiographical including one written during retirement in which Kallmann recalls growing up in a middle class Jewish family in 1930s Berlin under the spectre of Nazism Of the seventeen selected writings by Kallmann five have never before been published many of the others are from difficult to locate sources They include critical and research essays reports reflections and memoirs Each chapter is prefaced with an introduction by the editors Two initial chapters offer a biography of Kallmann and an assessment of his contributions to Canadian music The variety breadth and scope of these writings confirm Kallmann's pioneering role in Canadian music research and the importance of his legacy to the cultural life of his adopted country In the current climate of cuts to archival collections and services the publication of these essays by and about a pre eminent collector and historian serves as a timely reminder of the importance of cultural memory

The Ballad of John Latouche : an American Lyricist's Life and Work Howard Pollack, 2017 In his short life the Virginia born John Treville Latouche 1914-56 made a profound mark on America's musical theater as a lyricist book writer and librettist His signature achievements include theatrical works with composers Earl Robinson Vernon Duke Duke Ellington Jerome Moross and Leonard Bernstein
