Magic Divinatio Witchcraft Among The:

Magic, Divination, and Witchcraft Among the Barotse of Northern Rhodesia Barrie Reynolds, 1963 The Scottish Witch-Hunt in Context Julian Goodare, 2002-09-21 This book is a collection of essays on Scottish witchcraft and witch hunting which covers the whole period of the Scottish witch hunt from the mid 16th century to the early 18th It particularly emphasizes the later stages since scholars are now as keen to explain why witch hunting declined as why it occurred There are studies of particular witchcraft panics including a reassessment of the role of King James VI The book thus covers a wide range of topics concerned with Scottish witch hunting and also places it in the context of other topics gender relations folklore magic and healing and moral regulation by church and state African Religions & Philosophy John S. Mbiti, 1990 African Religions and Philosophy is a systematic study of the attitudes of mind and belief that have evolved in the many societies of Africa In this second edition Dr Mbiti has updated his material to include the involvement of women in religion and the potential unity to be found in what was once thought to be a mass of quite separate religions Mbiti adds a new dimension to the understanding of the history thinking and life throughout the African continent Religion is approached from an African point of view but is as accessible to readers who belong to non African societies as it is to those who have grown up in African nations Since its first publication this book has become acknowledged as the standard work in the field of study and it is essential reading for anyone concerned with African religion history philosophy anthropology or general African studies Magic, Witchcraft, and Ghosts in the Greek and Roman Worlds Daniel Ogden, 2002 In a culture where the supernatural possessed an immediacy now strange to us magic was of great importance both in the literary mythic tradition and in ritual practice In this book Daniel Ogden presents 300 texts in new translations along with brief but explicit commentaries Authors include the well known Sophocles Herodotus Plato Aristotle Virgil Pliny and the less familiar and extend across the whole of Graeco Roman antiquity Annals of Ireland by the Four Masters as translated into English by Owen Connellan Michael O'Clery, 2003 The second volume of the 2 book set for The Annals of Ireland by the Four Masters as translated by Owen Connellan This is the volume that contains the large fold out map at the back of the book Africanizing Anthropology Lyn Schumaker, 2001-07-12 An innovative cultural study of a major site of British anthropology done with methods from the history of science detailing the development of methods practices and work culture in the colonial context Divining the Woman of Endor J. Kabamba Kiboko, 2017-02-23 An examination of the language of divination in the Hebrew Bible particularly in 1 Samuel 28 3 25 the oft called Witch of Endor passage Kiboko contends that much of the vocabulary of divination in this passage and beyond has been mistranslated in authorized English and other translations used in Africa and in scholarly writings Kiboko argues that the woman of Endor is not a witch The woman of Endor is rather a diviner much like other ancient Near Eastern and modern African diviners She resists an inner biblical conquest theology and a monologic authoritarian view of divination to assist King Saul by various means including invoking the spirit of a departed person Samuel Kiboko carries out a Hebrew word study shaped by the theories of Mikhail M Bakhtin regarding the utterance heteroglossia and dialogism in order to understand the designative connotative emotive and associative meanings of the many divinatory terms in the Hebrew Bible She then examines 1 Samuel 28 and a number of prior translations thereof using the ideological framework of African feminist postcolonial biblical interpreters and translation theories to uncover the hidden ideology or transcript of these translations Finally using African contextual cultural hermeneutics and cross cultural translation theory Kiboko offers new English French and Kisanga translations of this passage that are both faithful to the original text and more appropriate to an inculturated liberation African Christian hermeneutic theology and praxis

Magic in the Literature of the Neronian Period

Konstantinos Arampapaslis, 2024-04-22 Neronian representations of magic a practice prevalent in the everyday life of the period and a central topic in its literary production are characterized by unprecedented accuracy and detail The similarities of witchcraft depictions in Seneca's Medea Lucan's book 6 and Petronius Satyricon with spells of the PGM the defixiones as well as with Pliny's quasi magical recipes underscore realism as the distinctive trait of Neronian magic scenes which has often been considered the authors means to differentiate themselves from their Augustan predecessors However such high degree realism is not merely an ornamental feature but transforms into a tool that influences the reader s response toward magic according to each author s worldview and aims The cross generic examination of the motif of magic in the major Neronian authors shows how realism forms a link between reader contemporary experience and text that encourages more active participation on the part of the reader At the same time images of destruction the horrific and the ridiculous further enhance the negative view of magic as an ineffective Lucan Petronius or destructive force Seneca simultaneously eliciting the reader s critical response
