Magic Seeds A Novel:

Magic Seeds V. S. Naipaul, 2010-02-10 The Nobel Prize winning author continues the story of Willie Chandran the perennially dissatisfied and self destructively naive protagonist of his bestselling Half a Life The most essential English language novelist of our time New York Having left a wife and a livelihood in Africa Willie is persuaded to return to his native India to join an underground movement on behalf of its oppressed lower castes Instead he finds himself in the company of dilettantes and psychopaths relentlessly hunted by police and spurned by the people he means to liberate But this is only one stop in a quest for authenticity that takes in all the fanaticism and folly of the postmodern era Moving with dreamlike swiftness from guerrilla encampment to prison cell from the squalor of rural India to the glut and moral desolation of 1980s London Magic Seeds is a novel of oracular power dazzling in its economy and unblinking in its observations The Magic Seeds Tera Ab Ankhnu Feaster, 2009-08-04 The Magic Seeds is an urban fairy tale It was inspired by a what if game played by the authors a mother son team What if the toy gemstone the son was playing with was actually real While riding home every day after school the authors thought about this question and created a lovely story about a little boy and his mother and how a pack of magic seeds changed their lives The Magic Seeds is a fantastical story about a modern day urban family that faces the average daily challenges that many people face However in this story as in all fairy tales there s a very happy ending The Magic Seeds does not have goblins giants or evil stepmothers in it What it does touch on are real life situations such as finding good childcare spending quality time with your children as a single parent and making the best of your situation By reading The Magic Seeds you and your family will smile and laugh at the way little Johnny creates fun in his life and recognizes his mother s determination to do her best to give her son a great childhood on a budget This is a feel good story that will remind you that it s the small things that truly matter most Magic Seeds Vidiadhar Surajprasad Naipaul, 2011 From V S Naipaul a spare searing novel about identity and idealism and their ability to shape or destroy us Willy Chandra whom we first met in Half a Life is a man who has allowed one identity after another to be thrust upon him Now in his early 40s after a peripatetic life he succumbs to the demanding encouragement of his sister and his own listlessness and joins an underground movement in India ostensibly devoted to unfettering the lower castes But seven years of revolutionary campaigns and several years in jail convince him that the revolution had nothing to do with the village people we said we were fighting for and he feels himself further than ever from his own history and from the ideas of himself that might have come to him with that history When he returns to England where 30 years before his psychological and physical wanderings began he finds the fruit of another unexpected social revolution more magic seeds and he comes to see himself as a man serving an endless prison sentence a revelation that may finally release him into his true self Magic Seeds is a masterpiece written with all the depth and resonance the clarity of vision and precision of language that are the hallmarks of this brilliant writer The Postcolonial Indian Novel in English Geetha Ganapathy-Doré, 2011-01-18 Indian writers of

English such as G V Desani Salman Rushdie Amit Chaudhuri Amitav Ghosh Vikram Seth Allan Sealy Shashi Tharoor Arundhati Roy Vikram Chandra and Jhumpa Lahiri have taken the potentialities of the novel form to new heights Against the background of the genre's macro history this study attempts to explain the stunning vitality colourful diversity and the outstanding but sometimes controversial success of postcolonial Indian novels in the light of ongoing debates in postcolonial studies It analyses the warp and woof of the novelistic text through a cross sectional scrutiny of the issues of democracy the poetics of space the times of empire nation and globalization self writing in the auto meta docu fictional modes the musical pictorial cinematic and culinary intertextualities that run through this hyperpalimpsestic practice and the politics of gender caste and language that gives it an inimitable stamp This concise and readable survey gives us intimations of a truly world literature as imagined by Francophone writers because the postcolonial Indian novel is a concrete illustration of how language liberated from its exclusive pact with the nation can enter into a dialogue with a vast polyphonic ensemble

V. S. Naipaul, Man and Writer Gillian Dooley, 2017-02-01 An introduction to the uncompromising artistic vision of the internationally acclaimed writer A survey of the life and work of the 2001 Nobel Laureate for Literature V S Naipaul Man and Writer introduces readers to the writer widely viewed as a curmudgeonly novelist who finds special satisfaction in overturning the vogue presuppositions of his peers Gillian Dooley takes an expansive look at Naipaul's literary career from Miguel Street to Magic Seeds From readings of his fiction nonfiction travel books and volumes of letters she elucidates the connections between Naipaul's personal experiences as a Hindu Indian from Trinidad living an expatriate life and the precise euphonious prose with which he is synonymous Dooley assesses each of Naipaul's major publications in light of his stated intentions and beliefs and she traces the development of his writing style over a forty year career Devoting separate chapters to three of his chief works A House for Mr Biswas In a Free State and The Enigma of Arrival she analyzes their critical reception and the primacy of Naipaul's specific narrative style and voice Dooley emphasizes that it is above all Naipaul's refusal to compromise his vision in order to flatter or appease that has made him a controversial writer At the same time she sees the integrity with which he reports his subjective response to the world as essential to the lasting success of his work

The Sum of No Equation Sabine Freyling, 2008 Starting with the social and psychological side of the person Naipaul one can summarise some reasonably simple discoveries that can be extracted from both his autobiographical pieces and his seemingly fictional books published within a period of more than fifty years Naipaul suggested that the way to approach the author is not through finding out as much as possible about the man and one could easily argue that the idea shall simply be used in conversion One can learn more about the person when taking into account all that has been produced by the author who is part of the person By this means one can extract valuable information about both person and author and thus can easily uncover some mysteries that have been established by the author person to conceal the reality behind a fixed idea that has always played a significant role in Naipaul's life Having studied English Naipaul was aware of all the tools available and of the aims of literary critics and seems to have challenged these established routes for his own sake and to serve his purpose

The Novel Now Richard Bradford, 2009-02-04 The Novel Now is an intelligent and engaging survey of contemporary British fiction. Discusses familiar names such as Martin Amis, Ian McEwan, Salman Rushdie and Angela Carter and compares them with more recent authors including David Mitchell, Ali Smith, A. L. Kennedy, Matt Thorne, Nicola Barker and Toby Litt. Incorporates original coverage of subgenres such as chick lit, lad lit, gay fiction, crime fiction and the historical novel. Discusses the ways in which notions of regional identity and tribalist views have surfaced in UK and Irish fiction and how post-Imperial sensibility has become a feature of the British novel. Situates contemporary fiction within its socio-cultural and literary contexts.

The 2000s: A Decade of Contemporary British Fiction Nick Bentley,Nick Hubble,Leigh Wilson,2015-10-22 How did social cultural and political events in Britain during the 2000s shape contemporary British fiction The means of publishing buying and reading fiction changed dramatically between 2000 and 2010 This volume explores how the socio political and economic turns of the decade bookended by the beginning of a millennium and an economic crisis transformed the act of writing and reading Through consideration of among other things the treatment of neuroscience violence the historical and youth subcultures in recent fiction the essays in this collection explore the complex and still powerful relation between the novel and the world in which it is written published and read This major literary assessment of the fiction of the 2000s covers the work of newer voices such as Monica Ali Mark Haddon Tom McCarthy David Peace and Zadie Smith as well as those more established such as Salman Rushdie Hilary Mantel and Ian McEwan making it an essential contribution to reading defining and understanding the decade

Comparative Postcolonialism in the Works of V.S. Naipaul and Toni Morrison Alshaymaa Mohamed Ahmed, 2022-07-07

Comparative Postcolonialism in the Works of V S Naipaul and Toni Morrison Fragmented Identities begins with an overview of its theoretical framework highlighting the intersectional relationship between postcolonial literature and comparative literature Tracing selected novels by Naipaul and Morrison the book takes as a starting point Fanon's three phase journey of the decolonizing process In the first phase of mimicry Naipaul's and Morrison's earlier novels represent the assimilation of indigenous people into dominant hegemonic cultures The second phase is envisioned as the re narration or re interpretation of the past and old legends of indigenous culture Morrison succeeds in asserting that her ancestors past is the only way to celebrate a cultural identity but Naipaul tends to criticize and neglect his past and his original indigenous culture The third phase marks the emergence of a revolutionary literature in which Naipaul and Morrison guide their people to hybridity as a new way of becoming and resisting the hegemonic dichotomies in dominant societies

Using Graphic Novels in the English Language Arts Classroom William Boerman-Cornell, Jung Kim, 2020-10-01

Shortlisted for the UK Literacy Association's Academic Book Award 2021 There is an increasing trend in teachers using graphic novels to get their students excited about reading and writing using both original stories and adaptations of classic works by authors such as Homer Shakespeare and the Brontes However there is surprisingly little research available about which pedagogies and classroom practices are proven to be effective This book draws on cutting edge research surveys and classroom observations to provide a set of effective methods for teaching with graphic novels in the secondary English language arts classroom These methods can be applied to a broad base of uses ranging from understanding literary criticism critical reading multimodal composition to learning literary devices like foreshadowing and irony The book begins by looking at what English language arts teachers hope to achieve in the classroom It then considers the affordances and constraints of using graphic novels to achieve these specific goals using some of the most successful graphic novels as examples including Maus Persepolis The Nameless City and American Born Chinese and series such as Manga Shakespeare Finally it helps the teacher navigate through the planning process to figure out how to best use graphic novels in their own classroom Drawing on their extensive teaching experience the authors offer examples from real classrooms suggested lesson plans and a list of teachable graphic novels organized by purpose of teaching

The Novels of Gloria Naylor Gloria Naylor, 2018-04-17 Three lyrical and unforgettable novels from the National Book Award winning author of The Women of Brewster Place After winning both the National Book Award and the American Book Award for her now iconic debut novel The Women of Brewster Place which was later made into a TV miniseries starring Oprah Winfrey Gloria Naylor continued to garner acclaim as one of the most original voices in twentieth century American literature with novels such as Mama Day Linden Hills and Bailey s Cafe Mama Day On Willow Springs an island off the coast between Georgia and South Carolina superstition is more potent than any trappings of the modern world Here the formidable Mama Day uses her powers to heal But her great niece Cocoa can t wait to escape to New York City When Cocoa returns to the island with her husband George darker forces challenge the couple and their only hope may be the mystical matriarch Steeped in the folklore of the South and inspired by Shakespeare Mama Day is one of Naylor s richest and most complex novels Providence Journal A wonderful novel full of spirit and sass and wisdom and completely realized The Washington Post Linden Hills For its wealthy African American residents the exclusive neighborhood of Linden Hills is a symbol of making it But what happens when the dream of material success turns out to be an empty promise Using Dante s Inferno as a model Naylor reveals the true cost of success for the lost souls of Linden Hills a hell of their own making Every page contains a brilliant insight a fine description some petty and human some grandiloquent Chicago Tribune Bailey s Cafe This moving and memorable national bestseller is set in post World War II Brooklyn on a quiet backstreet where Bailey s Cafe serves as a crossroads for a broad range of patrons a place of limbo for tortured souls before they move on or check out Boston Globe A virtuoso orchestration of survival suffering courage and humor The New York Times Book Review

A Fluid Sense of Self Silvia Schulterlandl, Sebnem Toplu, 2010 In this era of increasing global mobility identities are too complex to be captured by concepts that rely on national borders for reference Such identities are not unified or stable but are fluid entities which constantly push at the boundaries of the nation state thereby re defining themselves and the nation state simultaneously Contemporary literature pays specific attention to internal and external notions of belonging Politics of Motion and definitions of self resulting from interpersonal relationships Politics of Longing This collection looks at texts by authors who are British American or Canadian but for whom a self definition according national parameters is insufficient
