the fourth Evangel preserving its philosophical and mystical terminology and as far as possible the peculiarities of its literary form The modern English style is followed in this translation not only for the sake of clearness but also because it fairly represents the simple homely and halting Greek of the Evangel The lack of English equivalents for many of the Greek words and phrases makes it impossible to render these satisfactorily in some passages but in all such cases explanatory foot notes are added giving definitions and more adequate renderings than could be observed in the close and literal translation These notes being indexed form a glossary of all the important words in the Evangel thus enabling the reader even if unacquainted with the Greek language to follow the terminology as closely in the translation as could be done in the Greek text itself and affording him almost every advantage to be had from a study of the original About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
