The Challenge of Religion after Modernity Raymond L. M. Lee,Susan E. Ackerman,2018-05-08 This title was first published in 2003 If God has departed as Baudrillard claims is religion still relevant A new religious landscape is appearing in the new millennium The middle classes with their electronic technologies are producing a culture of commodified images and signs that is radically transforming the religious landscape and re enchanting the world Ecstatic experiences pervade the reenchanting world Both fundamentalism and the New Age movement promote the free flow of charisma reshaping religion in unforeseen directions Analysing the crisis of modernity this book delves into the intricacies of these movements to examine the implications of religious change in the new millennium The authors provide an incisive assessment of religious change in the West and Asia to suggest an eclecticism in re enchantment that will usher in new ideas about charisma consciousness and spirituality These ideas focus on new forms of shamanism that point the way to experiences of empowerment beyond the structures of disenchantment

Companion Spider Clayton Eshleman,2010-03-01 Companion Spider is the accumulated work of a poet and translator who goes more deeply into the art and its process and demands than anyone since Robert Duncan Clayton Eshleman is one of our most admired and controversial poets the translator of such great international poets as C sar Vallejo Aim C saire and Antonin Artaud and founder and editor of two important literary magazines Sulfur and Caterpillar As such Eshleman writes about the vocation of poet and of the poet as translator as no one else in America today he believes adamantly that art must concern itself with vision and that poets learn best by an apprenticeship that is a kind of immersion in the work of other poets Companion Spider opens with a unique eighty page essay called Novices A Study of Poetic Apprenticeship addressed to the poet who is just starting out Subsequent sections take up the art of translation poets and their work and literary magazine editing The title is drawn from an extraordinary visionary experience which the author had which becomes a potent metaphor for the creative process Through the variety of poets and artists to whom he pays homage Eshleman suggests a community which is not of a single place or time rather there is mutual recognition and responsiveness so that the reader becomes aware of a range of artistic practices s he might explore Yoga Journal ,1997-09 For more than 30 years Yoga Journal has been helping
