Magistrate Judge The Story Of The Provincial Court Of British Columbia:

Magistrate-judge, the Story of the Provincial Court of British Columbia Alfred Watts, 1986 Essays in the History of Canadian Law Hamar Foster, John McLaren, 1995-12-15 This sixth volume in the Osgoode Society's distinguished series on the history of Canadian law turns to the a central theme in the history of British Columbia and the Yukon law and order In the early days of British sovereignty the frenzied activity of the fur trade and the gold rush along with clashes between settlers and Natives made law enforcement a difficult business Later although law and order were more firmly established tensions continued between the dominant populations committed to the practice and rhetoric of British justice and those groups owing allegiance to other value systems such as Native peoples Asian immigrants and Doukhobors or those resisting authority criminals and the criminally insane These essays look at key social economic and political issues of the times and show how they influenced the developing legal system The essays cover a wide range of topics and explore the human as well as the legal dimensions of their subjects relating specific cases to broader theory They demonstrate that English law has been flexible enough to accommodate diversity and is therefore pragmatic The volume also proves that there is no single Canadian legal culture geography demography politics economics and military considerations have had an impact on the shape of our legal culture The introduction by John McLaren and Hamar Foster pulls together the many regional themes to provide a clear overview of the legal complexities of the period Canadian State Trials, Volume V Barry Wright, Susan Binnie, Eric Tucker, 2022-11-01 The fifth and final volume of the Canadian State Trials series examines political trials and national security measures during the period of 1939 to 1990 Essays by historians and legal scholars shed light on experiences during the Second World War and its immediate aftermath including uses of the War Measures Act and the Official Secrets Act with the unfolding of the Cold War and legal responses to the FLQ including the October Crisis labour strikes and Indigenous resistance and standoffs The volume critically examines the historical and social context of the trials and measures resulting from these events concluding the first comprehensive series on this important area of Canadian law and politics The fifth volume's exploration of state responses to real and perceived security threats is particularly timely as Canada faces new challenges to the established order ranging from Indigenous nations demanding a new constitutional framework to protestors challenging discriminatory policing and contesting public health measures Osgoode Society for Canadian Legal History Manitoba Law Journal Special Issue: Essays in Legal History in Honour of DeLloyd J. Guth - 2020 Volume 43(1) , The Manitoba Law Journal is a peer reviewed journal founded in 1961 The MLJ's current mission is to provide lively independent and high caliber commentary on legal events in Manitoba or events of special interest to our community This issue has articles from a variety of contributing authors The White Man's Law in the Far West Hamar Foster, University of Manitoba.
