GONÇALVES,1865 Cosmopolitanism in Mexican Visual Culture María Fernández,2014-01-06 Since the colonial era Mexican art has emerged from an ongoing process of negotiation between the local and the global which frequently involves invention synthesis and transformation of diverse discursive and artistic traditions In this pathfinding book Mar a Fern ndez uses the concept of cosmopolitanism to explore this important aspect of Mexican art in which visual culture and power relations unite the local and the global the national and the international the universal and the particular She argues that in Mexico as in other colonized regions colonization constructed power dynamics and forms of violence that persisted in the independent nation state Accordingly Fern ndez presents not only the visual qualities of objects but also the discourses ideas desires and practices that are fundamental to the very existence of visual objects Fern ndez organizes episodes in the history of Mexican art and architecture ranging from the seventeenth century to the end of the twentieth century around the consistent but unacknowledged historical theme of cosmopolitanism allowing readers to discern relationships among various historical periods and works that are new and yet simultaneously dependent on their predecessors She uses case studies of art and architecture produced in response to government commissions to demonstrate that established visual forms and meanings in Mexican art reflect and inform desires expectations memories and ways of being in the world in short that visual culture and cosmopolitanism are fundamental to processes of subjectification and identity

y cumplí todo lo que se había dicho de mí. Leamos de mí como de uno que vino al mundo para salvarnos. Todo lo que se refiere a mí es de la mayor importancia para nosotros porque si no creemos en mí y lo amamos por encima de todo, pereceremos para siempre. Por eso antes de leer elevemos siempre nuestro corazón a Dios en oración. Oh Señor, concédenos tu Espíritu Santo para que nuestras almas se salven por el conocimiento de tu bendito Hijo. No siempre nos reuniremos para adorar a Dios como lo hacemos ahora. Llegará un día en que cada uno de nosotros se unirá con los demás en la lectura y la oración por última vez. Pero si creemos en Jesús, no nos separaremos para siempre. Nos encontraremos de nuevo en el Cielo. Entonces qué delicioso ser recordar el tiempo en que como una sola familia nos reuníamos para oír hablar de nuestro amado Señor. Muchas horas que pasamos abajo pueden ser recordadas con pesar, pero no esos preciosos momentos dedicados a escuchar acerca de mí, cuya presencia nos hará felices por toda la eternidad. Un comentario devocional sobre los Evangelios. Dispuesto para la devoción familiar para cada día del año.
