Ashbel P. Fitch David F. Remington,2011-06-28 The concept of an honest Tammany man sounds like an oxymoron but it became a reality in the curious career of Ashbel P Fitch who served New York City as a four term congressman and a one term city comptroller during the late nineteenth century Although little known today Fitch was well respected in his own day and played a pivotal role on both national and local stages In the U S Congress Fitch was a passionate advocate of New York City His support of tariff reform and his efforts to have New York City chosen as the site for an 1892 World Exposition reflected his deep interest in issues of industrialization and urbanization An ardent defender of immigrant rights Fitch opposed the xenophobia of the times and championed cosmopolitan diversity As New York s comptroller he oversaw the city s finances during a time of terrible economic distress withstanding threats from Tammany Hall on one side and from Mayor William L Strong s misguided reform administration on the other In Ashbel P Fitch Remington succeeds in illuminating the independence and integrity of this unsung hero against the backdrop of the Gilded Age s corrupt politics and fierce party loyalty

Hearst, the Collector Mary L. Levkoff, Los Angeles County Museum of Art, 2008 Magnificent, Marvelous Martelé
John Webster Keefe, Samuel J. Hough, 2001 The Martele line of handwrought silver in the Art Nouveau style by the Gorham Manufacturing Company is justly regarded as a major expression of that style on this side of the Atlantic Ocean. Officially introduced at the influential Paris Exposition Universelle of 1900 Martele silver was widely admired and was awarded a Grand Prix and many gold medals. The excitement created then by the new artistic line of Martele silver has been rekindled by this premiere exhibition of nearly three hundred works from the collection of Jolie and Robert Shelton. The mammoth and highly regarded Gorham Company developed from a small jewelry manufactory founded by Jabez Gorham 1792-1869 in Providence, Rhode Island to the world's largest producer of sterling silver wares. In the process of this growth the company distinguished itself by successfully combining new technological advances in the industry with exemplary design. So successful was Gorham in the closing years of the nineteenth century that it could devote considerable time, money, and expertise to create an art line of hollowware produced entirely by hand. The new line in the latest cutting edge taste departed dramatically from Gorham's flourishing line of machine-made commercial flat and hollowwares. It was named Martele from the French verb marteeler the hammer. The line probably never would have come into existence without the driving influence and vision of two men: Gorham's energetic chief executive Edward Holbrook 1849-1919 and its chief designer William Christmas Codman 1839-1923. To connoisseurs of silver Codman is justly renowned for the development of the lavish Martele line starting with designs in 1896 and commencing a limited production in 1897.
