Wolowelsky, 2005 Women at the Seder is a traditional Passover Haggadah whose commentary celebrates one of the great transformations of the Torah community during this past century the emergence of women from the privacy of their home tents to the public arena of the synagogue and Torah study halls without abandoning in any way their central traditional role as the cornerstone of the home and family The Rabbis had long ago acknowledged that it was in the merit of our righteous women that Israel was redeemed from slavery The Passover seder the home celebration of our national liberation is an appropriate place to acknowledge and honor women's expanded role in our public as well as private religious life The commentary includes rabbinic comments on women associated with the Exodus a discussion of those relevant aspects of Jewish law that apply to women and homilies divrei Torah by women for the seder many written especially for this volume In a generation it should seem quaint that it was noteworthy that women's divrei Torah constituted a significant part of a Haggadah commentary That will be cause for yet additional rejoicing as women's contributions on all levels of Torah scholarship will have become even more commonplace     Jewish Every Day Behrman House, Maxine Segal
