Mai I Rangiatea Maori Wellbeing And Development:

Mai I Rangiatea Pania Te Whāiti, Marie Barbara McCarthy, Arohia Durie, 1997 Mai i Rangiatea provides some Maori perceptions of healthy growth and development. It introduces a Maori developmental discourse which affirms a cultural base with an affinity to the discourses of other indigenous peoples. Western concepts of human development have oversimplified the process by emphasizing individuality as the core then generalizing to the whole. Maori acknowledgment of the interdependency between the individual and the group gives some basis for alternative discourses. Ngā Kāhui Pou

Launching Māori Futures Mason Durie, 2003 Professor Durie discusses traditions and customs and addresses contemporary needs in order to build development strategies for the launch of the Maori population into the new millennium. This work also suggests models for the development of other indigenous peoples. Comprehensive Handbook of Social Work and Social Welfare, Social Work Practice, 2008-03-31 Comprehensive Handbook of Social Work and Social Welfare Volume 3 The Profession of Social Work features contributions from leading international researchers and practitioners and presents the most comprehensive in depth source of information on the field of social work and social welfare. Social

Spanning the full range of both mezzo and macro practice areas the authors thoroughly look at the assessment of and interventions with group community organizational and institutional settings. The most authoritative book in this field Social Work Practice with Groups Communities and Organizations features a focus on evidence based approaches to assessment and intervention for each practice area discussed. Comprehensive coverage of the most important new and emerging practice technologies in mezzo and macro social work. Current and emerging demographic social political and economic trends affecting mezzo and macro practice. An array of pedagogical aids including Key Terms Review Questions for Critical Thinking and Online Resources. Content closely aligned with social work accreditation standards. EPAS. Providing a solid review of the entire scope of contemporary mezzo and macro social work practice. Social Work Practice with Groups Communities and Organizations is both an indispensable educational text for students and a valuable working resource for practitioners who work with groups communities and organizations of all sizes. Maea te interpersonal relationships is key Each chapter highlights relevant policy guidance and is developed around a practice scenario discussing key knowledge skills and values relating to its theme This highly practical book should therefore be of value to a range of students at different academic levels from VQ to Masters and to practitioners and managers in residential child care The book draws on ideas from child and youth care and social pedagogic traditions and will appeal to a worldwide audience and provides a valuable addition to the emerging literature around social pedagogy Group Care Practice with Children and Young People Revisited Leon C. Fulcher, Frank Ainsworth, 2012-12-06 Find out how group care for children has changed in the last 20 years Group Care Practice with Children and Young People Revisited focuses on the core issues that shape the quality of care that is provided in institutional and residential care settings as well as day care services that rely on the group process Leading authorities on residential group care practice from around the world examine practice concepts centered on three broad themes working directly with children working indirectly to support children and their families and organizational influences on practice This unique book offers valuable insights for dealing with the daily challenges of working with young people in responsive group care Group Care Practice with Children and Young People Revisited builds on contemporary themes that were explored by the editors more than 20 years ago in Group Care for Children Concept and Issues and Group Care Practice with Children both out of print Contributors to this updated collection put a fresh spin on the original material as well as cross cultural analysis from both sides of the Atlantic Australia and New Zealand Malaysia China and the United Arab Emirates They revisit the key issues identified in the earlier books and provide personal and professional reflections on what has happened to their practice themes since the early 1980s Special attention is paid to how social policy imperatives normalization de institutionalization mainstreaming least restrictive environment minimal intervention and diversion have reshaped the field group care methods and skills needed for direct and indirect care and group care as an occupational Group Care Practice with Children and Young People Revisited examines and re examines the relationships between group care practice and education how group care programs can become hostile to families primary care in secondary settings the importance of shared language in a group care center group development how group composition can influence the overall functioning of the group managing occupational stresses in group care practice patterns of career development in child and youth care economic influences that impact group care challenges facing the future of group care services for children and much more Group Care Practice with Children and Young People Revisited is a must read for youth case workers child and youth care educators and anyone working in child welfare including youth justice managers administrators and policymakers Manitoba Law Journal: A Review of the Current Legal Landscape 2013 Volume 37(1) Darcy L.

Toi Ora: Māori Health Transformations Te Kani Kingi, Mason Durie, Hinemoa Elder, Rees Tapsell, Mark Lawrence, Simon Bennett, 2018-02-28 Residential Child Care in Practice Mark Smith, Leon Fulcher, Peter Doran, 2013-02-13 Written by experienced practitioners and academics this is a core text about the practice of residential child care. It takes as its starting point the fact that residential child care involves workers and children sharing a common lifespace in which the quality of
