Robinson,2016-10-10 Excerpt from The Maid of Mirabelle A Romance of Lorraine I see the dawn through drowsy eyes which close only to start Open again as the restored silence is once more pierced by another clarion call Now a bugle before the barrack just over the way is singing in silver tones the staccato notes Of the reveille Poilu get up poilu get up poilu get up it s morning it seems to say The command is not addressed to me and I lazily turn over under theuffy feather counterpane that covers me like heaped up snow on a grave the high head and foot stones Of which are hand carved black walnut beautiful with age I strive to shut out the sounds Of stirring life by burying both ears simultaneously in the pillow and fail For now from the near by convent whose square tower and squat steeple rises above the village like a guardian sentinel the morning Angelus begins it ringing welcome to the new born day Clang Clang Clang The bells in turn sound out the tonal trinity the last sonorously deep of voice speaking in slow measured notes as though it scorned to be hurried at its time of life NOW all three join in the glad matutinal chorus About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works      The Maid of Mirabelle.
