Management Aids, 19?? Mojo Workin' Katrina Hazzard-Donald, 2012-12-30. A bold reconsideration of Hoodoo belief and practice. Katrina Hazzard Donald explores African Americans' experience and practice of the herbal healing folk belief tradition known as Hoodoo. She examines Hoodoo culture and history by tracing its emergence from African traditions to religious practices in the Americas. Working against conventional scholarship, Hazzard Donald argues that Hoodoo emerged first in three distinct regions she calls regional Hoodoo clusters, and that after the turn of the nineteenth century Hoodoo took on a national rather than regional profile. The spread came about through the mechanism of the African Religion Complex, eight distinct cultural characteristics familiar to all the African ethnic groups in the United States. The first interdisciplinary examination to incorporate a full glossary of Hoodoo culture. Mojo Workin' The Old African American Hoodoo System lays out the movement of Hoodoo against a series of watershed changes in the American cultural landscape. Hazzard Donald examines Hoodoo material culture, particularly the High John the Conquer root which practitioners employ for a variety of spiritual uses. She also examines other facets of Hoodoo, including rituals of divination such as the walking boy and the Ring Shout, a sacred dance of Hoodoo tradition that bears its corollaries today in the American Baptist churches. Throughout, Hazzard Donald distinguishes between Old tradition, Black Belt Hoodoo, and commercially marketed forms that have been controlled, modified, and often fabricated by outsiders. This study focuses on the hidden system operating almost exclusively among African Americans in the Black spiritual underground.
