Women's Lives/Women's Times Trev Lynn Broughton,Linda R. Anderson,1997-01-01 Women s Lives Women s Times reflects the growing interest in life writing as a basis for both feminist theorizing and women centered education It discusses the many ways in which the study of autobiography can contribute to the theory practice and politics of women s studies as curriculum and to feminist theory more generally This volume is concerned with the application of theory to text particularly with the assumptions and discourses of postmodernism but also in exploring how general theories of the subject do not always fit comfortably with the specifics of autobiographical writing It also recognizes the challenge women s autobiography offers to theory taking us in its complex weave of the personal the political and the theoretical beyond the usual generic and disciplinary boundaries The Maimie Papers Maimie Pinzer,1977 U.S. Women in Struggle Claire Goldberg

The End of this Day's Business Katharine Burdekin,1989 A A A Written in 1935 but never published until now this novel depicts a world ruled by women some 4 000 years into the future Men live alone and rear boys in a cheerful atmosphere of sports physical labor and healthy sexuality but without the consciousness of anxiety or knowledge of history claimed by women The plot of the novel described by Choice as a forgotten masterpiece turns on the desire of one woman to teach her son about the past Risking their lives she tells the story of the rise of fascism and the subsequent world transformation as life loving women took over from death loving men Burdekin's novel is one of the few serious role reversal utopias we have I read it in one sitting Joanna Russ author of The Female Man American Studies International, 1997

The Other Woman Susan Koppelman, 1984 Inside and outside marriage what happens to the woman betrayed How do abandoned wives or lovers feel What happens when the battle between the sexes becomes a triangle The plots in this collection of eighteen stories written between the 1840s and 1980s are infinitely variable and the outcomes will enrage shock amuse and sometimes hearten In some stories women forge links with other women in solidarity In others women fight for their men and win In many stories the betrayal ultimately enriches the central character who learns through the loss of her man the value of her own life Sister Gin June Arnold, 1989 Aging lesbian consciousness the difficulty of escaping from alcoholism these are the themes of June Arnold's extraordinary novel first published by Daughters in 1975 The novel stands squarely in the southern literary tradition depicting with memorable hilarity a group of elderly female vigilantes who take local rape deference into their own hands Critics and fellow writers have rightly lauded it as a classic of experimental fiction It is also a unique exploration of menopause as rebirth Sister Gin is a tour de force about lesbianism and alcoholism fat and feminism rape and race falling in love with your lover's mother's girlfriend and it has the very best description of hot flashes in literature Jane Marcus
