Mais Oui Text Only:

The Francophone African Text Kwaku Addae Gyasi, 2006 Focusing on the African writer and the language of the former colonial power The Francophone African Text Translation and the Postcolonial Experience highlights the writer's reappropriation of the foreign language in the creative writing process It calls attention to the African writer's use of French a process of creative translation in which the writer's words form a hybrid code that compels the original French to refer to the indigenous African language for meaning Examining a group of works under the theme of translation this book reveals that a consideration of both ideological and linguistic elements enhances understanding of the subject from the broader perspective of postcolonial discourse The Beginning Translator's Workbook Michele H. is an interdisciplinary research study at the interface between linguistics and philosophy which sheds new light on the narrative theoretical issue of proximal vs distal stance adoption in discourse Narrative distance ultimately depends on the epistemological source of the information conveyed but English and other Indo European languages have no inflectional systems for encoding that source of knowledge To fill in the gap speech act theory is reconsidered in the light of philosophical research on linguistic functions and a parallel is drawn between grammaticalized evidential categories and the objectifying acts of Husserl's phenomenology of constitution These intuitive vs signitive intentional acts do indeed roughly correspond to direct vs indirect evidentiary forms and can be inferred from the temporal perspectival organization of discourse by the so called intimation or announcement function of language systems It turns out that perspectival immediacy requires tenses with overlapping event and reference points but predictions of the sort are non monotonic forms of reasoning defeasible by quantificational aspect distinctions on the one hand and inherent meaning considerations on the other To substantiate this claim the bulk of the book provides an in depth formal semantic account of tense aspect and Aktionsart interwoven with a detailed analysis of the cognitive processes associated with eventuality description types The book addresses an audience of linguists in general formal semanticists cognitive scientists philosophers and narratologists with an interest in natural language semantics

'Subordination' versus 'Coordination' in Sentence and Text Cathrine Fabricius-Hansen, Wiebke Ramm, 2008-05-21 The papers collected in this volume including a comprehensive introduction investigate semantic and discourse related aspects of subordination and coordination in particular the relationship between subordination coordination at the sentence level and subordination coordination or hierarchical non hierarchical organization at the discourse level The contributions in part I are concerned with central theoretical questions part II consists of corpus based cross linguistic studies of clause combining and discourse structure involving at least two of the languages English German Dutch French and Norwegian part III contains papers addressing specific predominantly semantic topics relating to German English or French and the papers in part IV approach the topic of subordination coordination and rhetorical relations from a diachronic Old Indic and Early Germanic perspective The book aims to contribute to a better understanding of information packaging on the sentence and text level related within a particular language as well as cross linguistically

The Collected Poems of Langston Hughes Langston Hughes, 2020-12-31 The ultimate book for both the dabbler and serious scholar Hughes is sumptuous and sharp playful and sparse grounded in an earthy music This book is a glorious revelation Boston Globe Spanning five decades and comprising 868 poems nearly 300 of which have never before appeared in book form this magnificent volume is the definitive sampling of a writer who has been called the poet laureate of African America and perhaps our greatest popular poet since Walt Whitman Here for the first time are all the poems that Langston Hughes published during his lifetime arranged in the general order in which he wrote them and annotated by Arnold Rampersad and David Roessel Alongside such famous works as The Negro Speaks of Rivers and Montage of a Dream Deferred The Collected Poems includes the author's lesser known verse for children topical poems distributed through the Associated Negro Press and poems such as Goodbye Christ that were once suppressed Lyrical and pungent passionate and response to current conservative attacks on women s studies feminist scholarship and academic inquiry that foregrounds

 Robinson one of the pioneers of the culture wars Curriculum reform changing the canon multiculturalism feminism and political correctness these issues have multiple labels bestowed on different sides of a debate that began in the academy but that has become a matter of civic interest Most of the well known books on these issues including bestsellers by Alan Bloom

 Winner of the 2023 Award for Excellence for Best Historical Research in Recorded Jazz from the Association for Recorded Sound Collections During the formative years of jazz 1890 1917 the Creoles of Color as they were then called played a significant role in the development of jazz as teachers bandleaders instrumentalists singers and composers Indeed music penetrated all aspects of the life of this tight knit community proud of its French heritage and language They played and or sang classical military and dance music as well as popular songs and cantiques that incorporated African European and Caribbean elements decades before early jazz appeared In Jazz la Creole French Creole Music and the Birth of Jazz the author describes the music played by the Afro Creole community since the arrival of enslaved Africans in La Louisiane then a French colony at the beginning of the eighteenth century emphasizing the many cultural exchanges that led to the development of jazz Caroline V zina has compiled and analyzed a broad scope of primary sources found in diverse locations from New Orleans to Quebec City Washington DC New York City and Chicago Two previously unpublished interviews add valuable insider knowledge about the music on French plantations and the danses Cr oles held in Congo Square after the Civil War Musical and textual analyses of cantiques provide new information about the process of their appropriation by the Creole Catholics as the French counterpart of the Negro spirituals Finally a closer look at their musical practices indicates that the Creoles sang and improvised music and or lyrics of Creole songs and that some were part of their professional repertoire As such they belong to the Black American and the Franco American folk music traditions that reflect the rich cultural heritage of Louisiana The Bibliographer ,1884 The Bibliographer; a Journal of Book-lore ,1884 Origins Laure Vuaille Barcan counter the myths and received wisdom that are typically associated with this iconic French crime fiction series namely that it was born in Paris on a tide of postwar euphoria that it initially consisted of translations of American hard boiled classics by the likes of Dashiell Hammett and Raymond Chandler and that the translations were rushed and rather approximate. Instead an alternative vision of Duhamel's translation practice is proposed one based on a French tradition of auto or original translation of ostensibly American crime fiction and one that appropriates the source text in order to create an allegory of the target culture.
