Distinguishing Phenomena from Their Intrinsic Nature Arya Maitreya, Jamgon Mipham, 2021-09-07 Outlining the difference between appearance and reality, this work shows that the path to awakening involves leaving behind the inaccurate and limiting beliefs we have about ourselves and the world around us and opening ourselves to the limitless potential of our true nature. By divesting the mind of confusion, the treatise explains we see things as they actually are. This insight allows for the natural unfolding of compassion and wisdom. According to tradition, Maitreya, the Buddha's regent, taught the root text of Distinguishing Phenomena from Their Intrinsic Nature to Asanga, who recorded the verses. The text is part of a larger collection of philosophical works that have become classics of the Indian Buddhist tradition. This volume includes commentaries by Khenpo Shenga and Ju Mipham, whose discussions illuminate the subtleties of the root text and provide valuable insight into the nature of reality and the process of awakening. Khenpo Shenga and Ju Mipham were both among the most influential figures to come out of the Tibetan tradition in recent centuries. Their writings contributed tremendously to the flourishing of Buddhist philosophy and practice in Tibet.

Mountain Doctrine Dol-bo-ba Shay-rap-gyel-tsen, 2017-08-22 Translated here for the first time into any language, Mountain Doctrine is a seminal fourteenth-century Tibetan text on the nature of reality. The author, Dol-bo-ba Shay-rap-gyel-tsen, was one of the most influential figures of that dynamic period of doctrinal formulation, and his text is a sustained argument about the Buddha-nature, also called the matrix of one-gone-thus. Dol-bo-ba recognizes two important types of emptiness: self-emptiness and other-emptiness, and shows how other-emptiness is the actual ultimate truth. He justifies this controversial formulation by arguing that it was the favored system of all the early outstanding figures of the Great Vehicle. The translator's introduction includes a short biography of Dol-bo-ba and an exposition of nine focal topics in his religious philosophy. Note: The hardcover edition of Mountain Doctrine includes a Detailed Outline in Tibetan that is omitted in the eBook edition.

Mipham's Dialectics and the Debates on Emptiness Karma Phuntsho, 2005-03-31 This is an introduction to the Buddhist philosophy of Emptiness, which explores a number of themes in connection with the concept of Emptiness, a highly technical but very central notion in Indo-Tibetan Buddhism. It examines the critique by the leading Nyingma school philosopher Mipham (1846-1912) formulated in his diverse writings. The book focuses on related issues such as what is negated by the doctrine of emptiness, the nature of ultimate reality, and the difference between extrinsic and intrinsic emptiness. Karma Phuntsho's book aptly undertakes a thematic and selective discussion of these debates and Mipham's qualms about the Gelukpa understanding of Emptiness in a mixture of narrative and analytic style.

Making Sense of Mind Only William S. Waldron, 2023-11-07 Through engaging contemporary examples Making Sense of Mind Only reveals the Yogacara school of Indian Buddhism as a coherent system of ideas and practices for the path to liberation contextualizing its key texts and rendering them accessible and relevant The Yogacara or Yoga Practice school is one of the two schools of Mahayana Buddhism that developed in the early centuries of the common era Though it arose in India Mahayana Buddhism now flourishes in China Tibet Korea Vietnam and Japan While the other major Mahayana tradition the Madhyamaka Middle Way focuses on the concept of emptiness that all phenomena lack an intrinsic essence the Yogacara school focuses on the cognitive processes whereby we impute such essences Through everyday examples and analogues in cognitive science author William Waldron makes Yogacara's core teachings on the three turnings of the Dharma wheel the three natures the storehouse consciousness and mere perception accessible to a broad audience In contrast to the common characterization of Yogacara as philosophical idealism Waldron presents Yogacara Buddhism on its own terms as a coherent system of ideas and practices with dependent arising its guiding principle The first half of Making Sense of Mind Only explores the historical context for Yogacara's development Waldron examines early Buddhist texts that show how our affective and cognitive processes shape the way objects and worlds appear to us and how we erroneously grasp onto them as essentially real perpetuating the habits that bind us to samsara He then analyzes the early Madhyamaka critique of essences This context sets the stage for the book's second half an examination of how Yogacara texts such as the Samdhinirmocana Sutra and Asanga's Stages of Yogic Practice Yogacarabhumi build upon these earlier ideas by arguing that our constructive processes also occur unconsciously Not only do we collectively yet mostly unknowingly construct shared realities or cultures our shared worlds are also mediated through the storehouse consciousness alayavijāna functioning as a cultural unconscious Vasubandhu's Twenty Verses argues that we can learn to recognize such objects and worlds as mere perceptions vijāptimātra and thereby abandon our enchantment with the products of our own cognitive processes Finally Maitreya's Distinguishing Phenomena from Their Ultimate Nature Dharmadharmatāvibhanga elegantly lays out the Mahayana path to this transformation In Waldron's hands Yogacara is no mere view but a practical system of transformation His presentation of its key texts and ideas illuminates how religion can remain urgent and vital in our scientific and pluralistic age
