Regional Security in the Middle East Pinar Bilgin,2019-01-31 In this new and fully revised edition Pinar Bilgin provides an accessible yet critical analysis of regional security in the Middle East analysing the significant developments that have taken place in the past years Drawing from a wide range of critical approaches to security the book offers a comprehensive study of pasts presents and futures of security in the region The book distinguishes itself from previous critical studies on regional security by opening up both region and security Different from those approaches that bracket one or the other this study takes seriously the constitutive relationship between inventing regions and conceptions and practices of security There is not one Middle East but many shaped by the insecurities of those who voice them This book focuses on how present day insecurities have their roots in practices that have throughout history been shaped by geopolitical inventions of security In doing so the book lays the contours of a framework for thinking critically about regional security in this part of the world This second edition of Regional Security in the Middle East is a key resource for students and scholars interested in International Relations and Political Science Security Studies and Middle East Studies

Anthropology of the Middle East and North Africa Sherine Hafez, Susan Slyomovics, 2013-06-05 This volume combines ethnographic accounts of fieldwork with overviews of recent anthropological literature about the region on topics such as Islam gender youth and new media It addresses contemporary debates about modernity nation building and the link between the ideology of power and the production of knowledge Contributors include established and emerging scholars known for the depth and quality of their ethnographic writing and for their interventions in current theory

Regional Security in the Middle East, Mapping Islamic Studies Azim Nanji, 2011-09-20 Since its founding by Jacques Waardenburg in 1971 Religion and Reason has been a leading forum for contributions on theories theoretical issues and agendas related to the phenomenon and the study of religion Topics include among others category formation comparison ethnophilosophy hermeneutics methodology myth phenomenology philosophy of science scientific atheism structuralism and theories of religion From time to time the series publishes volumes that map the state of the art and the history of the discipline

Political and Economic Liberalization Gerd Nonneman, 1996 This volume assesses the surges in the processes of democratisation and economic liberalisation and the forms they have taken Diverse country studies are used to advance the reader's understanding of the complexities of these processes

Muslims as Actors Jacques Waardenburg, 2012-02-13 This book deals with Islamic studies and with the question how the scholarly study of religion can contribute to the study of Islam The author advocates studying Islamic phenomena as signs and symbols interpreted and applied in diverse ways in existing traditions He stresses the role of Muslims as actors in the ongoing debate about the articulation of Islamic ways of life and construction of Islam as a religion A careful study of this debate should steer clear of political religious and ideological interests Research in this area by Muslims and non Muslim scholars alike should address the question of what Muslims have made of their Islam in specific circumstances Current political contexts have created an unhealthy climate for pursuing an open approach to Islam based on reading observing listening and reflecting Yet precisely nowadays we need to look anew at ways of Muslim thinking and acting that refer to Islam and to avoid certain schemes of interpreting Muslim realities that are no longer adequate for present day Muslim life situations Muslim recourse to Islam can be studied as human constructions of value and meaning and relations between Muslims and others can be seen in terms

Conermann,2011-02-01 This book examines the Russian Soviet intellectual tradition of Oriental and Islamic studies which comprised a rich body of knowledge especially on Central Asia and the Caucasus The Soviet Oriental tradition was deeply linked to politics probably even more than other European Orientalisms It breaks new ground by providing Western and post Soviet insider views especially on the features that set Soviet Oriental studies apart from what we know about its Western counterparts for example the involvement of scholars in state supported anti Islamic agitation the early and strong integration of Orientals into the scientific institutions the spread of Oriental scholarship over the Oriental republics of the USSR and its role in the Marxist reinterpretation of the histories of these areas The authors demonstrate the declared emancipating agenda of Soviet scholarship with its rhetoric of anti colonialism and anti imperialism made Oriental studies a formidable tool for Soviet foreign policy towards the Muslim World and just like in the West the Iranian Revolution and the mujahidin resistance to the Soviet occupation of Afghanistan necessitated a thorough redefinition of Soviet Islamic studies in the early 1980s Overall the book provides a comprehensive analysis of Soviet Oriental studies exploring different aspects of writing on Islam and Muslim history societies and literatures It also shows how the legacy of Soviet Oriental studies is still alive especially in terms of interpretative frameworks and methodology after 1991 Soviet views on Islam have contributed significantly to nation building in the various post Soviet and Russian Muslim republics Modern Jewish Scholarship on Islam in Context Ottfried Fraisse,2018-11-19 This volume highlights the role of Jewish scholars within the field of Oriental studies in the 19th and 20th century It discusses their views of Islam and the Orient in the context of concepts such as orientalism colonialism and modernity The analysis shows that Jewish oriental research provides a way of understanding some of the particularities of the boundaries between European frameworks of thought Contingency in a Sacred Law

Baber Johansen,2023-09-29 This book focuses on the Hanafite school of fiqh which originated in the eighth century and is geographically the most widespread and numerically the most important representative of Muslim normativeness The fiqh consists of liturgical ethical and legal norms derived from the Islamic revelation The introduction outlines the main boundaries between fiqh and theology and follows the modern debate on the comparison between the fiqh and the secularized law of the modern Occident The core of the book is dedicated to the way in which the fiqh in the period between the 10th and the 12th centuries adapted to changing circumstances of urban and agricultural life chapters I and II to the way in which it marked off legal from ethical norms chapter III religious from legal status chapters IV to VI and legal propositions from religious judgment chapter VII The forms in which change of norms was made acceptable is discussed in chapter VIII The last chapter deals with an attempt of Shi'i scholars in the Islamic Republic of Iran to answer new problems in old forms

A World History of Higher Education Exchange Teresa Brawner Bevis,2019-04-11 This book examines the origins of higher learning and then traces education exchange to the aftermath of World War II when the United States was internationally recognized as the epicenter of critical thinking and scientific discovery As centers of learning arose in the ancient world the gathering of students they drew invariably included foreigners those not native to the immediate local area Then as now inquisitive minds compelled humans to explore crossing borders to seek enlightenment in faraway places before returning to their homelands Few societies have been so remote that they could not be affected by the acquisition of imported information The number of international students and scholars in the United States now exceeds one million This book narrates the complex and colorful history of intrepid individuals inspired programs and world events that have given direction to the path of education exchange as well as the global dissemination of American scholarship Higher

Education Exchange between America and the Middle East through the Twentieth Century Teresa Brawner Bevis, 2016-04-08 Higher education exchange between America and the Middle East is a comparatively recent development but the colorful history of circumstances and events that preceded the relationship is ancient and deep Here Bevis explores the multifarious and intriguing story from antiquity to the end of the twentieth century Companion to Historiography Michael Bentley, 2002 This Companion presents a clear thematic overview of historiography explored through a series of stimulating and wide ranging articles Compiled by experts in the field the Companion is fully indexed for ease of access

European Traditions in the Study of Religion in Africa Ulrich Berner, Christoph Boehinger, 2004 This volume comprises case studies of five centuries of European encounters with and imaginations of Africa encompassing her triple religious heritage African Traditional Religions Christianity and Islam The introductory chapters outline the challenges and present overviews some of them also analyze the early accounts of European travelers and missionaries The following contributions examine the lasting legacy of the European Enlightenment in employing an ambivalent language of human equality and universalism while in actual fact consigning Africa to an inferior position It has been difficult for western scholars to divorce themselves wholly from the perceptions thus established However there have been quite different approaches This is indicated in the papers discussing the role and impact of influential European academics scholars of religion theologians historians and social scientists during the colonial and postcolonial period Other contributions examine specific institutional centers of African religious studies in Europe The concluding chapters critically assess European approaches and their use for the study of religion in Africa from an African perspective Islam's Predicament with

Modernity Bassam Tibi, 2009-02-25 This book presents an in depth cultural and political analysis of the issue of political Islam as a potential source of tensions and conflict and how this might be peacefully resolved Looking at modernity from an Islamic point of view the author analyses issues such as law knowledge and human rights
