Yves Congar 1904-1995 Etienne Fouilloux, 2023-06-01 This book is the culmination of a long companionship a final link between a historian familiar with theology and a theologian keen on history It was in February 1966 that Etienne Fouilloux met the Dominican theologian Yves Congar for the first time He then began a thesis on the origins of ecumenism Congar liberally opened his personal archives to him For fifteen years Congar did not leave the horizon of Fouilloux Congar attended the defense of his thesis in 1980 Then according to the work of the historian the theologian was never far away voluntary or involuntary protagonist of many of his studies on the theological crises of the 1930s and 1950s the Second World War or the Second Vatican Council In scattered but recurring touches Fouilloux had already shed light on many aspects of Congar's work including by publishing Journal d'un theologien 1946 1956 Editions du Cerf 2000 Today an overall plan and the cement necessary for writing a life story conceal the many stones previously brought to the building and finally constitute a biography of Father Congar The sum is undeniably greater than the addition of the parts Sabine Rousseau Archives de Sciences sociales des religions October December 2021

Personal Effects Sonia Wilson, 2017-12-02 Five months before her death of tuberculosis in 1884 Marie Bashkirtseff an aspiring artist and a would be mondaine composed a preface to her personal diary In it she brazenly declared that in the event of her early death her diary was to be published Three years later a truncated version of the diary appeared Translated into English championed by Barres and Gladstone taken up by young diarists from France to the US the diary created a major sensation remaining standard reading for young women in both the anglophone and francophone worlds until the 1930s The first full length study to explore the questions that reading Bashkirtseff's journal raises with respect to both genre and gender construction Personal Effects examines the genre and gender issues at stake in Bashkirtseff's bid to go public with the personal and explores the discursive strategies by which Bashkirtseff writes her journal from the private context of its keeping to a public context of reading Wilson reads the diary as a performance of writing one in which a display of the personal mediates between the subjective and the social the private and the public
