Guide 1991 Mick Martin,Marsha Porter,1990 A Cuban in Mayberry Gustavo Pérez Firmat,2014-10-01 Half a century after viewers first watched a father and son walking to the local fishing hole whistling a simple yet unforgettable tune The Andy Griffith Show remains one of the most popular sitcoms in the history of American television Tens of millions of viewers have seen the show either in its original run its ongoing reruns on DVD or on the internet Websites devoted to the show abound hundreds of fan clubs bring enthusiasts together and a plethora of books and Mayberry themed merchandise have celebrated all things Mayberry A small cottage industry has even developed around the teachings of the show s episodes But why does a sitcom from the 1960s set in the rural South still evoke such devotion in people today In A Cuban in Mayberry acclaimed author Gustavo P rez Firmat revisits America s hometown to discover the source of its enduring appeal He approaches the show from a unique perspective that of an exile who has never experienced the rootedness that Andy and his fellow Mayberrians take for granted as folks who have never strayed from home or lived among strangers As P rez Firmat

weaves his personal recollections of exile from Cuba with an analysis of the show he makes a convincing case that the intimacy between person and place depicted in TAGS is the secret of its lasting relevance even as he reveals the surprising ways in which the series also reflects the racial generational and political turbulence of the 1960s Video Movie Guide, 1988 Mick Martin, Marsha Porter, 1987 The End of Eden Terry Beers, 2018-05-31 The story of the Joad family's journey from their ravaged farm in dustbowl Oklahoma to the storied paradise of California helped inform a nation about the brutality poverty and vicious competition among fellow immigrants desperate for work But Steinbeck is only one successor to a rich and esteemed literary tradition in California Drawing on history and cultural theory The End of Eden traces the rise of the California social novel its embrace of the agrarian dream and its ambivalence about technology and the development it enables It relies on various cultural conceptions of space among them the American Public Land Survey the source of the grid allotments shaping homestead claims Mexican era diseases and Native American traditions that defined a fluid relationship between human beings and the land This animation of four California social novels of the late eighteenth and early nineteenth centuries demonstrates how conflicts over space and place signify cultural conflict It is deeply informed by the author's understanding of historical land issues The works include Joaquin Miller's Unwritten History Life Amongst the Modocs Helen Hunt Jackson's Ramona Frank Norris' The Octopus and Mary Austin's The Ford Miller's Unwritten History Life Amongst the Modocs and Jackson's Ramona examine the tragic but inevitable consequences for native people of making space inhabited already by Native American and Hispanic populations safe for Americans who pursue the agrarian dream without regard to its effects upon those who claim prior tenure on the land Norris' The Octopus and Austin's The Ford examine the murkier story of trying to preserve or to reclaim the agrarian dream when confronted by the unchecked materialist interests of American capitalism A wide reaching interdisciplinary approach to various cultural conceptions of space The End of Eden provides a crucial understanding of the conflicts depicted in social novels that lament the ways in which land is allocated and developed the ways in which American agrarianism and its promise of local sustainable land use is undermined and how it applies to contemporary California In an era where California confronts yet again the complicated patterns of land use fracking water use and water rights coastal regulation and management and agribusiness this groundbreaking work provides an ever relevant context The Graphic, 1889 Uncle Remus's Magazine, 1907 Video Movie Guide-1987 Mick Martin, 1986-12-12 Video Hound's Golden Movie Retriever, 1991 David J Weiner, Thomson Gale, 1991 New Zealand Farmer Weekly, 1927
