DiBattista,Deborah Epstein Nord,2019-06-18 In a bold and sweeping reevaluation of the past two centuries of women s writing At Home in the World argues that this body of work has been defined less by domestic concerns than by an active engagement with the most pressing issues of public life from class and religious divisions slavery warfare and labor unrest to democracy tyranny globalism and the clash of cultures In this new literary history Maria DiBattista and Deborah Epstein Nord contend that even the most seemingly traditional works by British American and other English language women writers redefine the domestic sphere in ways that incorporate the concerns of public life allowing characters and authors alike to forge new emancipatory narratives The book explores works by a wide range of writers including canonical figures such as Jane Austen Charlotte Bront George Eliot Harriet Jacobs Edith Wharton Virginia Woolf Willa Cather Gertrude Stein and Toni Morrison neglected or marginalized writers like Mary Antin Tess Slesinger and Martha Gellhorn and recent and contemporary figures including Nadine Gordimer Anita Desai Edwidge Danticat and Jhumpa Lahiri DiBattista and Nord show how these writers dramatize tensions between home and the wider world through recurrent themes of sailing forth escape exploration dissent and emigration Throughout the book uncovers the undervalued public concerns of women writers who ventured into ever wider geographical cultural and political territories forging new definitions of what it means to create a home in the world The result is an enlightening reinterpretation of women s writing from the early nineteenth century to the present day     Civil War Places Gary W. Ghost Writing in Contemporary American Fiction David Coughlan,2016-11-05 This book examines representations of the specter in American twentieth and twenty first century fiction David Coughlan's innovative structure has chapters on Paul Auster Don DeLillo Toni Morrison Marilynne Robinson and Philip Roth alternating with shorter sections detailing the significance of the ghost in the philosophy of Jacques Derrida particularly within the context of his 1993 text Specters of Marx Together these accounts of phantoms shadows haunts spirit the death sentence and hospitality provide a compelling theoretical context in which to read contemporary US literature Ghost Writing in Contemporary American Fiction argues at every stage that there is no self no relation to the other no love no home no mourning no future no trace of life without the return of the specter that is without ghost writing

Mere Reading Lee Clark Mitchell,2017-04-20 Argues through close readings of twentieth century American novels for a return to the foundations of literary study

Cowboy is a Verb Richard Collins,2019-11-06 From the big picture to the smallest detail Richard Collins fashions a rousing memoir about the modern day lives of cowboys and ranchers However Cowboy is a Verb is much more than wild horse rides and cattle chases While Collins recounts stories of quirky ranch horses cranky cow critters cow dogs and the people who use and care for them he also paints a rural West struggling to survive the onslaught of relentless suburbanization A born storyteller with a flair for words Collins breathes life into the geology history and interdependency of land water and native and introduced plants and animals He conjures indelible portraits of the hardworking dedicated people he comes to know With both humor and humility he recounts the day to day challenges of ranch life such as how to build a productive herd distribute your cattle evenly across a rough and rocky landscape and establish a grazing system that allows pastures enough time to recover He also intimately recounts a battle over the endangered Gila topminnow and how he and his neighbors worked with university range scientists forest service conservationists and funding agencies to improve their ranches as well as the ecological health of the Redrock Canyon watershed Ranchers who want to stay in the game don't dominate the landscape instead they have to continually study the land and the animals it supports Collins is a keen observer of both He demonstrates that patience resilience and a common sense approach to conservation and range management are what counts combined with an enduring affection for nature its animals and the land Cowboy is a Verb is not a romanticized story of cowboy life on the range rather it is a complex story of the complicated work involved with being a rancher in the twenty first century West A Jury of Her Peers Elaine

Showalter,2010-01-12 An unprecedented literary landmark the first comprehensive history of American women writers from 1650 to the present In a narrative of immense scope and fascination here are more than 250 female writers including the famous Harriet Beecher Stowe Dorothy Parker Flannery O'Connor and Toni Morrison among others and the little known from the early American bestselling novelist Catherine Sedgwick to the Pulitzer Prize winning playwright Susan Glaspell

Showalter integrates women's contributions into our nation's literary heritage with brilliance and flair making the case for the unfairly overlooked and putting the overrated firmly in their place Pinpricks in the Curtain Isabella Flinn,2014-05

The sound of a massive drum was the first thing I noticed when Juliet and I stepped out of the compact car Each time the confident student struck the drum the students that were lined up in neat rows facing him would expertly stand at attention then relax into the at ease stance With their little heads locked in position to face forward only their curious eyes darted to appraise us as we walked past them in flowing salwars toward their principal who stood waiting to greet us We were the invited guests to teach in their school And it was very apparent by the radiant smiles on the poised faces of these well mannered children that this was going to be a wonderful experience we would never forget I glanced at Juliet and realized that she too was barely containing her own enthusiasm and why not What seventeen year old American girl gets to teach alongside her mother in India Yes India was our home for the next few weeks and we were keenly aware with the sights smells and sounds that home would be different than what we were accustomed to However one blaring similarity remained children are precious in His sight no matter which half of the globe they call home Our goal was to convey that pivotal message to each student we had the privilege of serving here in this unfamiliar part of the world Evolve or Die John
