What happens when a grown man returns to the site of his fondest childhood memories A wry clear eyed and laugh out loud look at the transition to adulthood Three months before getting married at age thirty four Josh Wolk decides to treat himself to a farewell to childhood extravaganza one last summer working at the beloved Maine boys camp where he spent most of the eighties And there he finds out that there s no better way to see how much you ve changed than to revisit a place that hasn t changed at all In these eight hilarious uncomfortable enlightening weeks Josh readjusts to life teaching swimming and balancing on a thin metal cot in a cabin of shouting wrestling wet willie dispensing fourteen year olds who contrary to the warnings of doomsaying sociologists he finds indistinguishable from the rowdy fourteen year olds of his day in any way other than their haircuts With his old camp friends gone he finds himself working alongside guys who used to be his campers Moments of feeling crippling old are offset by the corrosive insecurities of his youth when he s paired in the cabin with Mitch the forty two year old jack of all extreme sports whose machismo intimidated Josh so much fifteen years earlier and whom their current campers idolize And throughout all this disorienting regression Josh s telephone conversations with his fiance Christine grow increasingly intense as their often comical discussions over the wedding become
