Exploring Turkish Cultures Dr Laurence Raw, 2011-01-18 This groundbreaking series of essays offers new insights into Turkish cultures both past and present. Moving beyond the traditional binaries of east-west, Islam/secularism and Europe/Asia, the book contains a variety of perspectives on contemporary Turkey from actors, directors, critics, and other major cultural figures. The book tries to situate these opinions in context by looking at how such perspectives are employed in different cultural spheres: education, theatre, politics, and the like. Exploring Turkish Cultures contains the first major interviews published in English with prominent public figures, including actors Tarkan, Oray Genco Erkal, and Nesrin Kazankaya. Other figures interviewed include film directors Derviş Zaim and documentary filmmakers Ben Hopkins, Pelin Esmer, and Zeynep Doğan. An extended interview with the author, translator, and academic Talat Halman rounds off the interview section. Complementing these interviews are a series of essays on major Turkish films and theatrical productions, both past and present. Combining historical analysis, comment, and evaluation from an author who has spent two decades living in Turkey, Exploring Turkish Cultures represents a major contribution to contemporary Turkish studies.
