Bowker's Guide to Characters in Fiction ,2003 The Publishers Weekly ,2002 Growing Up Different by Bonjenji Erva Zuckerman,2006-08 Born in 1918 at Bolenge in the Belgian Congo the daughter of American missionaries Bonjenji Erva Zuckerman experiences two very different worlds as she grows up in the era between two World Wars By the time she is twelve she will say goodbye to Africa and travel around the world arriving in Washington D C in 1931 Her parents look forward to going home but she is leaving the only home she has ever known her beloved Bolenge With clarity and simplicity Erva Zuckerman leads us through the amazing first twenty years of her long life from schoolwork on a screened porch by the Congo to social work in New York City On the epic journey from there to here her father a missionary doctor drove the family in a truck which broke down and was put back together it seems almost daily across Africa from west to east From there we follow the family around the world to America where Erva aspires to find her place as she comes of age during the Depression years Rich in detail and unaffected in its style the book reflects the personality of the author as aptly described in her high school yearbook Thoughtless of beauty she is beauty's self Martha Heyneman author of The Breathing Cathedral and The Productions of Time

Growing up with the Gauleiter Richard Lord,2017-02-07 He thinks in time lines and relates whatever he comes across to its origins in the past So while readers will discover what happened to the Lord family between 1939 and 1945 not much really they had it dead cushy the narrative is interspersed with interpretation and discussion about how the war changed things Although Richard inevitably became a history teacher his lifelong passion for retrospection was triggered long before he could even read by three things the pictures in an old schoolbook wartime news bulletins read by the BBC's Alvar Liddell and what his Dad told him about how it had been in the trenches in 1918 Although the author takes his history seriously he is typically irreverent and usually up for a laugh There is also a poignant element in a memoir that sometimes takes a confessional turn

BETWEEN CHARNWOOD AND THE CHEVIN Brenda Ray,2019-11-12 Between Charnwood and the Chevin is a snapshot of the time between post War austerity and the start of the Swinging Sixties a time of change when the relative equality of the War years was being hastily shovelled back under the nice new fitted carpets The developing suburb of Derby where the author grew up is described as an uneasy cross between The Stepford Wives and Royston Vasey Her family was ordinary enough but could still boast a silent movie actress a world famous philosopher several strange family disappearances a lot of railway folk and involvement in two civil wars Ancestors had come from the flat lands of Lincolnshire and others from the far south of Staffordshire in search of work settling in Derbyshire and Derby itself where they stayed and flourished and which this books evokes with such affection The author s account of her childhood and early teens is filled with warmth and humour as she occasionally looks back In Anger but more often in laughter It was the time of Angry Young Men and just slightly Stropky Young Women Spy ,1992-04 Smart Funny Fearless It s pretty safe to say that Spy was the most influential magazine of the 1980s It might have remade New York s cultural landscape it definitely changed the whole tone of magazine journalism It was cruel brilliant beautifully written and perfectly designed and feared by all There s no magazine I know of that s so continually referenced held up as a benchmark and whose demise is so lamented Dave Eggers It s a piece of garbage Donald Trump
