Seward's Travels Around the World William Henry Seward, 1876 My Voyage Around the World Francesco Carletti, 1965 Looking East Burglind Jungmann, Kim Young-Jae, Christine Göttler, 2013 This is a fascinating exploration of the mystery that surrounds of Ruben s most well known and intriguing drawings Peter Paul Rubens was one of the most talented and successful artists working in 17th century Europe During his illustrious career as a court painter and diplomat Rubens expressed a fascination with exotic costumes and headdresses With his masterful handling of black chalk and touches of red Rubens executed a compelling drawing that features a figure wearing Asian costume a depiction that has recently been identified as Man in Korean Costume Despite the drawings renown both during Ruben s own lifetime and in contemporary art scholarship the reasons why it was made and whether it actually depicts a specific Asian person remain a mystery The intriguing story that develops involves a shipwreck an unusual hat the earliest trade between Europe and Asia the trafficking of Asian slave and Jesuit missionaries As Long as it Takes Carl Corey, William Pinkney, 2006 Highlighting the achievements of one of the great sailboat racers of all time the author reveals how he emerged from the Great Depression in Chicago to become one of a small group of people to have circumnavigated the globe via the five Capes The Perfection of Nature Mackenzie Cooley, 2022-10-26 A deep history of how Renaissance Italy and the Spanish empire were shaped by a lingering fascination with breeding The Renaissance is celebrated for the belief that individuals could fashion themselves to greatness but there is a dark undercurrent to this f ted era of history The same men and women who offered profound advancements in European understanding of the human condition and laid the foundations of the Scientific Revolution were also obsessed with controlling that condition and the wider natural world Tracing early modern artisanal practice Mackenzie Cooley shows how the idea of race and theories of inheritance developed through animal breeding in the shadow of the Spanish Empire While one strand of the Renaissance celebrated a liberal view of human potential another limited it by biology reducing man to beast and prince to stud Race Cooley explains first referred to animal stock honed through breeding To those who invented the concept race was not inflexible but the fragile result of reproductive work As the Spanish empire expanded the concept of race moved from nonhuman to human animals Cooley reveals how as the dangerous idea of controlled reproduction was brought to life again and again a rich complex and ever shifting language of race and breeding was born Adding nuance and historical context to discussions of race and human and animal relations The Perfection of Nature provides a close reading of undertheorized notions of generation and its discontents in the more than human world Burning Women P.

Gunn,2003-06-05 First Globalization presents an original and sweeping conceptualization of the grand cultural civilizational encounter between Asia and Europe Now largely taken for granted the exchange resonates in multiple ways even today Offering a metageography of the vast Eurasian zone Geoffrey C Gunn shows how between 1500 and 1800 a lively two way flow in ideas philosophies and cultural products brought competing civilizations into serious dialogue and mostly peaceful exchange In Europe the interaction was reflected in missionary reporting cartographic representations literary productions and intellectual fashions alongside the business of commerce and plunder when it reached the Americas and peripheries In Asia notably China India and particularly Japan European ideas and their bearers received a remarkably positive hearing when they did not challenge reigning orthodoxies Ranging from discussions of the natural world livelihoods and religious and intellectual encounters to language play crime and punishment gender and governance this book replays the themes of enduring hybridity and creolization of cultures dating from the first great encounter between Europe and Asia
