Chocolatherapy Karen Scalf Linamen, 2007-04-01 When life makes you crazy reach for the chocolate it's cheaper than therapy and you don't need an appointment Beloved humor author Karen Scalf Linamen is back with her first new women's book in five years and she's got a stash of sweet treats in her purse to share Why do women choose comfort food when they are really craving something else What if they could stop settling for second best and give their souls what they are really seeking Would they be content Perhaps they would glean a deeper understanding of their emotions Most importantly they might be able to get into their skinny jeans and stay there With her trademark wit and insight Karen Linamen helps women everywhere discover what they are really hungering for and laugh out loud in the process .... My Thanks to You! Jack Coppard., 2015-04-02 When starting this story some three years ago I was never sure whether I had the ability or the stomach to awaken all of my past memories but I'm glad that I did I am also conscious of the fact that the written word is a very powerful tool and with this in mind I have stuck to the truth however painful at times but equally uplifting and amusing I have tried not to become judge and jury and have been mindful of the fact that most of the people I have written about are dead and therefore unable to defend themselves or give themselves a pat on the back These memories have been written as seen through my eyes only and are as correct as my memory recalls luckily I've been blessed with a very good memory For those who have followed my story from its start you will recall that my Mother died during the early years of World War Two and that I had always felt that the full details of her passing contained a degree of mystery The family always seemed to keep me in the dark and when the cause of death was revealed to me I understood why What My Mother and I Don't Talk About Michele Filgate, 2020-08-11 You will devour these beautifully written and very important tales of honesty pain and resilience Elizabeth Gilbert New York Times bestselling author of Eat Pray Love and City of Girls from fifteen brilliant writers who explore how what we don't talk about with our mothers affects us for better or for worse As an undergraduate Michele Filgate started writing an essay about being abused by her stepfather It took her more than a decade to realize that she was actually trying to write about how this affected her relationship with her mother When it was finally published the essay went viral shared on social media by Anne Lamott Rebecca Solnit and many others This gave Filgate an idea and the resulting anthology offers a candid look at our relationships with our mothers Leslie Jamison writes about trying to discover who her seemingly perfect mother was before ever becoming a mom In Cathi Hanauer's hilarious piece she finally gets a chance to have a conversation with her mother that isn't interrupted by her domineering but lovable father Andr Aciman writes about what it was like to have a deaf mother Melissa Febos uses mythology as a lens to look at her close knit relationship with her psychotherapist mother And Julianna Baggott talks about having a mom who tells her everything As Filgate writes Our mothers are our first homes and that's why we're always trying to return to them There's relief in acknowledging how what we couldn't say for so long is a way to heal our relationships with others and perhaps most important with ourselves knowledgeable than I am and who are true Bible theologians In these pages I make reference to the Bible and books of the Bible but generally not direct citations I hope and I pray that will encourage you to read the Bible for yourself not just parts but the whole Bible I say this I hope this and I pray this because I know that if you do you will find what I have found If we take the cultural glasses off and try to see the world through Christ and live according to God s Word then we will know sanity in insanity we will know Christ Jesus In the beginning was the Word and the Word was with God and the Word was God He was with God in the beginning Through him all things were made without him nothing was made that has been made In him was life and that life was the light of all mankind The light shines in the darkness and the darkness has not overcome it John 1 1 5
