Backpacking Through the Anglican Communion Jesse A Zink, 2014-01-10 The Anglican Communion is said to be coming apart at the seams But is that really true This book challenges that tired narrative of Anglican disunity Jesse

Zink has traveled tens of thousands of miles around the world visiting and worshiping with Anglicans in some of the Communion's most diverse provinces Nigeria the largest province ministering in an unstable political environment South Sudan at one point the fastest growing church in the world now rebuilding after devastating civil wars England the mother church of Anglicans struggling to adjust to a new secular age South Africa a church dealing with the legacy of entrenched discrimination and rapid social change The story Zink learns at the grassroots level of the church is far different from the one that dominates its highest levels He shows that when conversations about power history and sexuality are undertaken in a spirit of mutuality and trust they can strengthen not weaken the Anglican Communion The result is a book that presents vivid slices of Anglican life around the world argues convincingly that unity is central to the Communion's mission and presents a credible path to achieving that unity in a global church It is a book that will be sure to shape coming debates about the future of the Anglican Communion
