reference detailing RAF Bomber Command's extensive campaign of strategic bombings across occupied Europe. The Royal Air Force Bomber Command's strategic bombing campaign started on the first day of the Second World War and ended five and a half years later with the final victory in Europe. It was a campaign of such enormous scale that historians have only recently begun to piece together the finer details of the individual raids. Aviation historian Martin Middlebrook and his research colleague Chris Everitt were the first to compile a complete review of all the raids and their background stories. The Bomber Command War Diaries not only documents every Bomber Command operation but also details their effects on the ground drawing on local archives from Germany, Italy, and the occupied countries. It is a groundbreaking work on historical research bringing together the two sides of Bomber Command's war. This edition includes retrospective observations and a new appendix.

Ten Decisions Larry D. Rose, 2017-10-21 In the chaos of the Second World War, Canada faced cruel choices both on the battlefield and in the world of politics. Of all these life and death choices, ten stand above the others in their importance, their agonizing stakes, and the impact they have on the country to this day.
