The Boyhood of Burglar Bill Allan Ahlberg,2008-03-06 Coronation Year 1953 and in Oldbury a Coronation football competition is organized The boys from the bottom pitch get a team up but there s no chance they ll win of course They re just the odds and sods one of them is even a girl but they re all football crazy and ready and eager to beat off the opposition A funny and moving story of football and friendship in a world when the streets were full of kids and empty of cars Not only for boys and girls of 9 there s a real pull of nostalgia for adults as well And of course for all lovers of football whether on the pitch or in the park A Dictionary of Writers and their Works Christopher Riches,Michael Cox,2015-01-29 Over 3 200 entries An essential guide to authors and their works that focuses on the general canon of British literature from the fifteenth century to the present There is also some coverage of non fiction such as biographies memoirs and science as well as inclusion of major American and Commonwealth writers This online exclusive new edition adds 60 000 new words including over 50 new entries dealing with authors who have risen to prominence in the last five years as well as fully updating the entries that currently exist Each entry provides details of a writer s nationality and birth death dates followed by a listing of their titles arranged chronologically by date of publication Silent Mystery and Detective Movies Ken Wlaschin,2009-05-15 The silent film era was known in part for its cliffhanger serials and air of suspense that kept audiences returning to theaters week after week Icons such as Douglas Fairbanks Laurel and Hardy Lon Chaney and Harry Houdini were among those who graced the dark and shadowy screen This reference guide to silent films with mystery and detective content lists more than 1 500 titles in one of entertainment s most popular and enduring genres While most of the films examined are from North America mystery films from around the world are included The Continuum Encyclopedia of Children's Literature Bernice E. Cullinan,Diane Goetz Person,2005-01-01 Provides articles covering children s literature from around the world as well as biographical and critical reviews of authors including Avi C S Lewis J K Rowling and Anno Mitsumasa Choosing and Using Fiction and Non-Fiction 3-11 Margaret Mallett, 2010-07-02 Winner of the United Kingdom Literacy Association's Author Award 2011 for its contribution to extending children's literacy Praise for the book This book is about making readers A compact summary of its contents would not do it justice It is the account of a life's work and it deserves thanks and readers Margaret Meek Books for Keeps on line Number 185 November 2010 This book is a cornucopia of varied pleasures offering something for all tastes presented with an awareness of the complexities of the field and communicated with commitment enthusiasm and deep knowledge Eve Bearne English 4 11 the primary school journal of The English Association Number 42 Summer 2011 Choosing and Using Fiction and Non Fiction 3 11 is a guide to the many kinds of text we want children to encounter use and enjoy during their nursery and primary school years So children's non fiction literature including autobiography biography information and reference texts is given equal status with fiction nursery rhymes picturebooks novels traditional tales playscripts and poetry The author addresses important issues and allows the voices of teachers reviewers and children to be heard The book supports teachers as they help children on their journey to becoming insightful and critical readers of non fiction and sensitive and reflective readers of fiction It also contains suggestions for practice which are in the spirit of the more flexible and creative approach to learning towards which primary schools are moving It includes help on using criteria to select quality texts of all kinds annotated booklists for each kind of text for different age groups suggestions for keeping a balance between print and screen based texts case studies showing teachers and children using texts in interesting and imaginative ways to support learning in English lessons and across the curriculum advice on developing children's visual and multimodal literacy guidance on using the school library and embedding study skills in children's wider purposes and learning critiques of key theoretical perspectives and research projects Although the main readership will be primary and student teachers it is hoped that the book will be of interest and use to anyone concerned with the role of texts in children's learning Visions of Japanese Modernity Aaron Andrew Gerow, 2010 In this study Aaron Gerow focuses on the early period in which the institutional and narrational structure of Japanese cinema was in flux arguing that the transnational intertext is less important than the power laden operations by which the meaning of cinema itself was discursively defined Both progressive critics of the pure film movement and the more conservative Japanese cultural bureaucrats demanded a unitary text that suppressed the hybrid and unpredictable meanings attendant on early Japanese cinema's informal exhibition contexts Gerow points out the irony that the progressive and individualist pure film movement critics worked in concert with the Japanese state to undo the theft of Japanese cinema proposing to replace representations of Japan in Western films by exporting a Japanese cinema reformed to emulate the international norm Phantom's 80's Anniversary Special Lee Falk, Phantom's 80's Anniversary Special The Old Stories Kevin Crossley-Holland, 1997 □□□ □□□□ : □□□□□□□ Mark Howard Nornes, □□□, Kinema Club, 2001 In Praise of Film Studies brings together essays by scholars of Japanese cinema from around the world all of whom have drawn on the collection of Makino Mamoru for their research

Makino Mamoru was a filmmaker and essayist who began assembling an enormous collection of film related materials While most collectors concentrate on image centric items like posters and stills Makino recognized the importance of books magazines and other written texts for scholarship His collection spans the entire history of Japanese cinema and contains periodicals books pamphlets posters programs scripts diaries studio records fan zines catalogs textbooks photographs newspapers clipping files and the personal libraries of a number of film personalities Makino opened the collection to a variety of film scholars enabling them to write histories that were otherwise unimaginable This volume brings together a number of these scholars to honor Makino Mamoru and his dedication to the study of Japanese cinema In English and Japanese Motion Picture News ,1911 Forthcoming Books Rose Army,1997 Contemporary Authors New Revision Series ,2001-08 In response to the escalating need for up to date information on writers Contemporary Authors New Revision Series brings researchers the most recent data on the world s most popular authors These exciting and unique author profiles are essential to your holdings because sketches are entirely revised and up to date and completely replace the original Contemporary Authors entries For your convenience a soft cover cumulative index is sent biannually While Gale strives to replicate print content some content may not be available due to rights restrictions Call your Sales Rep for details Contemporary Authors ,1998 The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,2002 Children's Book Review Index Gary C. Tarbert,1998 The Publishers Weekly ,2001 Americanizing the Movies and Movie-Mad Audiences, 1910-1914 Richard Abel,2006-08-28 This engaging deeply researched study provides the richest and most nuanced picture we have to date of cinema both movies and movie going in the early 1910s At the same time it makes clear the profound relationship between early cinema and the construction of a national identity in this important transitional period in the United States Richard Abel looks closely at sensational melodramas including westerns cowboy cowboy girl and Indian pictures Civil War films especially girl spy films detective films and animal pictures all popular genres of the day that have received little critical attention He simultaneously analyzes film distribution and exhibition practices in order to reconstruct a context for understanding moviegoing at a time when American cities were coming to grips with new groups of immigrants and women working outside the home Drawing from a wealth of research in archive prints the trade press fan magazines newspaper advertising reviews and syndicated columns the latter of which highlight the importance of the emerging star system Abel sheds new light on the history of the film industry on working class and immigrant culture at the turn of the century and on the process of imaging a national community
