

The background of the entire image is a vibrant cosmic scene. The upper half features a soft, glowing nebula in shades of pink, purple, and blue, with numerous small white stars scattered throughout. A bright, circular light source, possibly a sun or a distant galaxy core, is visible in the upper center. The lower half of the image transitions into a darker, deep blue space filled with swirling nebulae and a network of bright, jagged white lightning bolts that crisscross the frame, creating a sense of dynamic energy and divine spark.
