relevance to other academic interests such as organizational behavior including motivation theory and social psychology literature contemporary social issue criticism and business management Editors Harris Wijesinghe and McKenzie have crafted a tight slim and thematically consistent volume that will be indispensable to scholars and students with twin interests in business and virtue ethics In particular those working with MacIntyre's ideas will find the thorough and complimentary explorations and applications of his ideas to serve overall as a cornerstone for their own work Brenden E Kendall 2014 Harris H Wijesinghe G McKenzie S Eds 2013 The Heart of the Good Institution Virtue Ethics as a Framework for Responsible Management Dordrecht The Netherlands Springer in Michael Schwartz Howard Harris ed Achieving Ethical Excellence Research in Ethical Issues in Organizations Volume 12 Emerald Group Publishing Limited pp 155 161 Cancer: 100 Ways to Fight John Roberts, 2010-03-29 Cancer 100 Ways to Fight Your own attitude is your brightest guiding star Some of success is doing what you like to do But more of it is doing the things you don't like to do but must It is too easy to make an excuse and not do it and fail John Roberts As this book goes to press early in 2010 I am 75 and into my fifth year with incurable metastatic prostate cancer which had already spread to the bones before cancer was diagnosed and the prostate removed The statistical prognosis for the current treatments of choice is that one half of these patients will die within three years 75% within five This usually happens after the standard treatments and chemotherapy fail and must be discontinued due to harmful side effects or weakening effectiveness resumed cancer growth and the failure of bones or key organs I am still feeling fine no pain living a normal life and I have completed eight months of chemotherapy with a 63% drop in my PSA prostate cancer blood test without major side effects or rising PSA I have fought this cancer and its personal consequences in more than a hundred ways as described here Above all a lifetime of fitness and my current excellent physical and mental condition supplemented by great medical care and everything else I can learn or think of is partially responsible for my success in living beyond the average life span for my particular fatal disease We cannot know which weapon or how much each one contributes to the extension of life so we must use them all The doctors all say that cancer survival is very unpredictable and I figured that many of the positive outcomes must depend on how comprehensively and how hard the individual fights So I immediately started this book and organized my fight I was extremely unfortunate most prostate cancer either is so slow growing or eliminated by removal that survivors live for many years In my case it had already spread or metastasized to the bones prior to the operation and that cancer is inoperable and incurable But some people in that condition die very early while others like me live much longer This is highly unpredictable in individual cases due to variation in patient condition treatment effectiveness and other unknowns More than half of all people newly diagnosed with cancer will be cured or given extended remission They will die of something else Of the other half a large number have treatable cancer and they still have many years to live The remainder probably including me have learned that they have incurable cancer that has grown too strong or spread and taken root in such places that it cannot be killed or removed and death is likely in the next few months or years Nevertheless normally incurable cancer and conventional predictability sometimes fail and others may prolong life by fighting with strong mental and physical effort As the disease progresses and is treated and science advances sometimes in great leaps we are rarely sure of which group we are in That uncertainty that hope and the dreadful power of cancer call for great strength of character and effort in both patients and those around them This book is about that The animal instinct to survive is in humans alone expanded in our unique cortex to something much greater the intelligent understanding of self awareness and an intense desire to prolong the experience growth and emotion of life The human spirit beyond the mere motivation of existence is largely responsible for all that our species has conquered and achieved It is an essential quality to be trained treasured and put to use and one of the finest ways is to survive continue and improve our exceptional life through our collective and individual intellect In the last century medical science the visibility of living in distant years and the recognition that we are and can be responsible for increasing our own longevity have ad

Military Ethics and Virtues Peter Olsthoorn, 2010-09-21 This book examines the role of military virtues in today's armed forces Although long established military virtues such as honor courage and loyalty are what most armed forces today still use as guiding principles in an effort to enhance the moral behavior of soldiers much depends on whether the military virtues adhered to by these militaries suit a particular mission or military operation Clearly the beneficiaries of these military virtues are the soldiers themselves fellow soldiers and military organizations yet there is little that regulates the behavior of soldiers towards civilian populations As a result troops trained for combat in today's missions sometimes experience difficulty in adjusting to the less aggressive ways of working needed to win the hearts and minds of local populations after major combat is over It can be argued that today's missions call for virtues that are more inclusive than the traditional ones which are mainly about enhancing military effectiveness but a convincing case can be made that a lot can already be won by interpreting these traditional virtues in different ways This volume offers an integrated approach to the main traditional virtues exploring their possible relevance and proposing new ways of interpretation that are more in line with the military tasks of the 21st century The book will be of much interest to students of military ethics philosophy and war and conflict in general

Developing Leadership Character Mary Crossan, Gerard Seijts, Jeffrey Gandz, 2015-12-22 This book focuses on the element of leadership that has largely been neglected in the literature character Often thought to be a subjective construct the book demonstrates the concrete behaviors associated with different character dimensions in order to illustrate how these behaviors can be developed and character strengthened Based on research involving over 300 senior leaders from different industries sectors and countries Crossan Seijts and Gandz developed a model for leadership character that focuses on eleven dimensions The book begins by setting the context for the focus on character in business asking what character is and whether it can be learned developed molded or changed Next the book focuses on each dimension of leadership character in turn exploring its elements and the ways in which it can be applied in a business setting The book concludes

Honor James Bowman, 2007 From the earliest records of human civilization until the dawn of the twentieth century and in widely separated cultures throughout the world the story of honor was inseparable from the story of mankind Today an acquaintance with the concept of honor is indispensable to understanding the culture of the Islamic world and its sense of grievance against the West where honor has been disregarded or actively despised for three quarters of a century James Bowman draws from a wealth of sources across many centuries to illuminate honor's curious history in our own culture and he discovers that Western honor was always different from that found elsewhere Its idiosyncratic qualities derived partly from the classical tradition but mainly from the Judeo-Christian heritage whose emphases on individual morality and more recently on sincerity and authenticity in private and personal life have acted as continual challenges to the traditional notion of honor as it is still maintained in other parts of the world These challenges to honor and the accommodations with it that they ultimately produced are a fundamental theme in our own culture's distinctive history and the eventual collapse of the honor culture in the West is the background against which the War on Terror and the Clash of Civilizations ought to be seen
