Mystic Grail:

Kandinsky's Quest Igor Aronov, 2006 This book studies Vasily Kandinsky's 1866-1944 pre-1908 figurative art that formed the basis for his later abstractions. It analyzes many published and unpublished facts of the artist's life and work and brings together numerous historical comparative data from painting, literature, the social sciences, ethnography, folklore, esthetics, and philosophy. This study penetrates deeply into Kandinsky's inner world and breaks new ground by interpreting the artist's enigmatic early imagery as his personal, many-layered symbolism that expresses his complex personality, his internal responses to Russian and Western European life and culture, and his quest for spiritual truths. Initiation Into the Grail Mysteries Grailmaster, Timothy A. Storlie, 2001-04-24 Significant new spiritual impulses come into our world through the strivings and invocations of unique men and women who have achieved a close attunement with the invisible guides of humanity known in Hermetic terms as Spiritual Hierarchy. The Temple of the Holy Grail is a new spiritual impulse given in the latter quarter of the twentieth century. It is a mystery school designed to empower spiritually mature women and men with Hierarchical attunement for esoteric world service. Thus Hierarchy has created an initiatic mystery school based not upon secrecy but accessibility and not upon hidden geographical centers but a worldwide virtual platform. T H G is not dependent upon secret adepts but upon self-empowerment. It is focused not merely upon the spiritual achievements of the past but upon the coming generation of spiritually gifted individuals who are attuning themselves to Divine Will and Hierarchy. T H G exists to facilitate the empowerment of those spiritually talented individuals who have the potential to contribute wonderful new achievements of soul and spirit for the sake of the New Humanity. It is a tool to be used by such people. Sources of the Grail John Matthews, 1997 Still stands the destined Knight aloof in his passionate patience. His hand over his eyes. Is he doomed to fulfil or fail? Shall he dare the hells and the heavens of the strange illuminations? Initiate at last of the dread mysterious Graal. The editor John Matthews tells us that at the beginning of the twelfth century the poet Chrétien de Troyes composed a poem he called Il Conte del Graal. The Story of the Grail. It told the story of a search taken up by a simple young man who was brought up away from the ways of ordinary people. His search was for a mysterious object known as the Graal, but Chrétien left the poem unfinished, dying before he could complete it, thus creating a mystery that has stirred the imagination of countless seekers ever since. The Grail may be almost anything or it may be something that has no form at all or even exist in our world. The important thing is that it provides an object for personal search for growth and human development. We are dealing here with high things with a Mystery that is almost too much for us. But we can learn and grow from studying it and by sharing the adventure of the Quest. Sources of the Grail is the most complete anthology of Grail texts available. Organized into three parts, the first deals with the Celtic sources, the second presents the medieval quest, and part three continues the search and represents some of the most far-reaching and deepest contemporary Grail seekers. Anyone interested in Western spiritual traditions will find this a valuable thought-provoking resource. A Dictionary of Symbols J.

E. Cirlot, 2023-07-11 This classic encyclopedia of symbols by the renowned Spanish poet illuminates the imagery of myth modern psychology literature and art J E Cirlot's A Dictionary of Symbols is a feat of scholarship an act of the imagination and a tool for contemplation as well as a work of literature a reference book that is as indispensable as it is brilliant and learned Cirlot was a composer poet critic and champion of modern art whose interest in surrealism helped introduce him to the study of symbolism This volume explores the space between the world at large and the world within where nothing is meaningless and everything is in some way related to something else Running from abandonment to zone by way of flute and whip spanning the cultures of the world and including a wealth of visual images to further bring the reality of the symbol home A Dictionary of Symbols is a luminous and illuminating investigation of the works of eternity in time The Golden Bough Jesse Storrs Ferris Butler, 1912 The American Isherwood James J. Moore,1993-09 The Descent of the Imagination places Thomas Hardy s writing within the context of nineteenth century fiction writing as a genre Moore therefore regards his examination of Hardy s work as a form of archaeology as well as a genealogy of the romantic figure in fiction from Wordsworth through Hardy The book provides a new interpretation of Hardy s method of composition and uses new source material that will interest Hardy scholars It offers an original view of the novelist that argues that his work especially his later writings were a deliberate rewriting of romanticism Missouri School Journal ,1922

Resonant Gaps Margaret Miner,1995 Resonant Gaps examines the ways in which Charles Baudelaire exploited certain powers of figurative language while writing on music particularly that of Richard Wagner Unlike many recent music literature studies Margaret Miner focuses less on the possible convergences of text and music than on their productive distances and divergences At the heart of this study is Baudelaire s 1861 essay Richard Wagner et Tannhauser Paris which is included in this volume in the French text of the 1861 Dentu edition Called a long meditated work of circumstance by its author Richard Wagner is the only piece of music criticism that Baudelaire ever attempted despite the prominence of music as a theme and a metaphor throughout his writings In the essay says Miner Baudelaire strove to erase the distinction between reading about Wagner s music and listening to it Continually sidestepping expectations and evading classification Baudelaire makes connections among musical understanding concrete or spatial distance and the abstract or conceptual distance between different arts Miner discusses such topics related to Baudelaire s project as his repertoire of textual and rhetorical maneuvers including italicization quotation personification digression and metaphor his assessment of the music s seductive ability to surround and suffuse the listener and the misunderstandings about and prejudices against Wagner and his music that hampered its critical reception in France Throughout her study Miner also refers to similar literary undertakings by Liszt Nietzsche Mallarm and Proust which involved the music of Wagner and Debussy Miner argues that Baudelaire s aim in attempting to lessen or suppress various distances that he discovers between his text and the music is not to freeze movement entirely but to inscribe his writing on Wagner s music so that the two might travel together over an aesthetic landscape that shelters rather than separates them Perceval/Parzival Arthur Groos,Norris J. Lacy,2012-12-06

This volume in the Arthurian Characters and Themes series treats the fascinating character of Perceval the naive and flawed but gifted youth who becomes the Grail hero in some texts and yet is eclipsed in others by Galahad Also includes eight musical examples Century Path ,1902 Bryn Mawr College Monographs ,1911 The Rosicrucian Enlightenment Revisited John Matthews,1999 A gathering of well informed scholars provides a sober sensible and fascinating overview of the history of the Rosicrucian movement still one of the most controversial and least understood byways of European philosophy and thought The volume includes four of the foundational documents of the original Rosicrucians from the early 17th century and carries the Rosicrucians influence down to the later 19th century Publisher s description Mystic Moderns James H. Thrall,2020-01-21 Mystic Moderns examines the responses of three British authors Evelyn Underhill 1875 1941 May Sinclair 1863 1946 and Mary Webb 1881 1927 to the emerging modernity of the long early twentieth century moment encompassing the First World War As they explored divergent but overlapping understandings of what mystical experience might be these authors rejected claims that modernity s celebration of the secular and rational left no place for the mystical rather they countered sensitivity to a greater reality could both establish and validate personal agency and was integral to their identities as modern women Their preoccupations with the dynamism of human connection drew on prevailing ideas of vital energy or life force developed by Arthur Schopenhauer and Henri Bergson in ways that channeled modernity s erotic energy of change By using their fiction to describe new self authenticating forms of mysticism separate from either the prevailing orthodoxy of establishment Christianity or the extreme heterodoxy of their era s enthusiasm for paranormal experimentation they also contributed to the rise of a generic concept of spirituality Mystic Moderns thus offers historical perspective on contemporary claims for self constructed non institutional spiritual experience associated with the claim I m spiritual not religious Working as they did within the shadow of the First World War Underhill Sinclair and Webb were in the end attempting to determine what might be of authentic value for a modern age marked by ubiquitous death While not themselves utopian authors each was touched by her era s complicated hunger for the best of all possible worlds Their constructions of how an individual should be and act in the midst of modernity thus simultaneously projected visions of what that modernity itself should become
