Mystical Realities Iranian Short Stories:

Mystical Realities Murtaẓā Mīr Āftābī, 1993 Strange Times, My Dear Nahid Mozaffari, Ahmad

Karimi-Hakkak, 2012-01-13 When Arcade Publishing originally contracted this extraordinary collection of poetry and literature the Department of the Treasury was attempting to censor the publication of works from countries on America's enemies list. Arcade along with the PEN American Center, the Association of American Publishers Professional and Scholarly Publishing Division and the Association of American University Presses filed a lawsuit in federal court against the United States government. Their landmark case forced the Office of Foreign Assets Control to change their regulations regarding editing and publishing literature in translation and Arcade is proud to reissue this anthology that showcases the developments in Iranian literature over the past quarter century. Since the Iranian revolution of 1979 the United States has been virtually cut off from that country's culture. Despite severe difficulties imposed by social, political and economic upheavals as well as war, repression and censorship, a veritable cultural renewal has taken place in Iran over the past quarter century not only in literature but in music, art and cinema. Over forty writers from three generations contributed to this rich and varied collection or to use the Persian term golchine a bouquet, one that provides a much needed window into a largely undiscovered branch of world literature. In the wake of the Green Revolution and sweeping changes in the region this particular golchine is more relevant than ever and will bring literary enjoyment as well as a fuller understanding of a complex and ever shifting culture.

Short Story Index, 1994 Iranian Cinema with Psychoanalysis Farshid Kazemi, 2024-12-30 Combining Lacanian psychoanalytic theory, Iranian Shi'ite thought and Islamicate sexualities, Iranian Cinema with Psychoanalysis: The Interpreter of Desires provides a groundbreaking analysis of the logic of desire and sexuality in key films of contemporary Iranian cinema, arguing that there is a profound albeit surprising correlation between post-revolutionary Iranian cinema and psychoanalysis that has remained unthought. Looking through the prism of psychoanalysis, Farshid Kazemi argues that censorship on the representation and expression of sexual desire in Iranian films has, contrary to the desired effect, produced a cinema of desire. This book is the first to provide an analysis of the unconscious structure of desire and sexuality operative in post-revolutionary Iranian cinema, demonstrating that psychoanalytic literature is uniquely positioned to shed light on this aspect of film Kazemi uncovers the hidden libidinal economy of Iranian cinema by exposing the fact that despite the State censor's desire to suppress desire it has inadvertently inscribed desire in its formal structure The book offers a compelling and innovative examination of Iranian cinema through a psychoanalytic lens contributing significantly to the field of film studies Iranian Cinema with Psychoanalysis will be of great interest to academics and scholars of film studies psychoanalytic studies Lacanian theory film theory Iranian cinema global cinema Iranian studies and Middle Eastern studies The Fiction of Rushdie, Barnes, Winterson and Carter Gregory J. Robinson, 2005-08-24 Literature often reflects societal change but it can also effect change by inspiring people to think in new ways Four authors who encourage readers to question traditional boundaries are Salman Rushdie Julian Barnes Jeanette Winterson and Angela Carter This book takes an in depth look at the works of these authors with specific emphasis on how they challenge religion especially in its fundamentalist forms and its intersections with history politics gender and sexuality The study notes both differences and similarities among the four authors whose writings broadly represent the major themes in contemporary British literature Divided into two primary sections the volume first takes a look at Rushdie and Barnes and their stance regarding historical and political issues The second section concentrates on gender and sexuality in the writings of Winterson and Carter Among the works examined are Rushdie's The Satanic Verses and Midnight's Children Barnes' Flaubert's Parrot and A History of the World in 10 1/2 Chapters Winterson's Boating for Beginners and Written on the Body and Carter's The Passion of New Eve and Heroes and Villains The final chapter includes a brief survey of other significant figures in postmodern British literature including Martin Amis Ian McEwan D M Thomas Fay Weldon and Emma Tennant

The Book of Iran Aḥmad Tamīm'dārī, 2002 Martyrdom, Mysticism and Dissent Asghar Seyed-Gohrab, 2021-08-23

This book is the first extensive research on the role of poetry during the Iranian Revolution 1979 and the Iran Iraq War 1980 1988 How can poetry especially peaceful medieval Sufi poems be applied to exalt violence to present death as martyrdom and to process war traumas Examining poetry by both Islamic revolutionary and established dissident poets it demonstrates how poetry spurs people to action even leading them to sacrifice their lives The book's originality lies in fresh analyses of how themes such as martyrdom and violence and mystical themes such as love and wine are integrated in a vehemently political context while showing how Shiite ritual such as the pilgrimage to Mecca clash with Saudi Wahhabi appreciations A distinguishing quality of the book is its examination of how martyrdom was instilled in the minds of Iranians through poetry employing Sufi themes motifs and doctrines to justify death Such inculcation proved effective in mobilising people to the front ready to sacrifice their lives As such the book is a must for readers interested in Iranian culture and history in Sufi poetry in martyrdom and war poetry Those involved with Middle Eastern Studies Iranian Studies Literary Studies Political Philosophy and Religious Studies will benefit from this book From his own memories and expert research the author gives us a ravishing account of a poetry stained with blood violence and death His brilliantly layered analysis of modern Persian poetry shows how it integrates political and religious ideology and motivational propaganda with age old mystical themes for the most traumatic of times for Iran Alan Williams Research Professor of Iranian Studies University of Manchester When Asghar Seyed Gohrab a highly prolific academician publishes a new book you can be certain he has paid attention to an exciting and largely unexplored subject Martyrdom Mysticism and Dissent The Poetry of the 1979 Iranian Revolution and the Iran Iraq War 1980 1988 is no exception in the sense that he combines a few different cultural religious mystic and political aspects of Iranian life to present a vivid picture and thorough analysis of the development and effect of what became known as the revolutionary poetry of the late 1970s and early 1980s This time he has even enriched his narrative by inserting his voice into his analysis It is a thoughtful book and a fantastic read Professor Kamran Talattof University of Arizona The Transdisciplinarity in Humanities Eugene Steele, 2016-02-29 The domination of single subjects in academic programmes and institutions has recently been called into question Literary studies are currently opening themselves up to the epistemological renewal that other fields can offer They are increasingly borrowing theoretical tools from other subjects in order to analyse the historical socio political and institutional conditions of the production of literary texts to identify the general discursive circumstances in which they emerge and to study the relationship between literature and other media Similarly while subjects such as sociology history and political science have always been closely related if not literally spinoffs from one another as in the case of sociology vis vis anthropology what becomes of their specificities when they borrow from geography to address space related issues from psychology to understand social actors individual motivations or from literary studies to make sense of individual or collective narratives The present volume accounts for experiments in research that overstep disciplinary boundaries by analysing the new fields and methodologies emerging in the contemporary globalised academic environment which puts a strong premium on synergism and linkages Moreover it assesses current theoretical reflections on inter multi and transdisciplinarity as well as research grounded in it and measures their impact on the evolution of scholarship and curriculum in the fields of literature language and humanities
