Mysticism And Social Change The Social Witness Of Howard Thurman:

Mysticism and Social Change Alton Brooks Pollard, 1992 Quakers and Mysticism Jon R. Kershner, 2019-08-29 This book examines the nearly 400 year tradition of Quaker engagements with mystical ideas and sources. It provides a fresh assessment of the way tradition and social context can shape a religious community while interplaying with historical and theological antecedents within the tradition. Quaker concepts such as Meeting the Light and embodied spirituality have led Friends to develop an interior spirituality that intersects with extra Quaker sources such as those found in Jakob Boehme, Ab Bakr ibn Tufayl, the Continental Quietists, Kabbalah, Buddhist thought, and Luyia indigenous religion. Through time and across cultures, these and other conversations have shaped Quaker self understanding and so expanded previous models of how religious ideas take root within a tradition. The thinkers engaged in this globally focused interdisciplinary volume include George Fox, James Nayler, Robert Barclay, Elizabeth Ashbridge, John Woolman, Hannah Whitall Smith, Rufus Jones, Inazo Nitobe, Howard Thurman, and Gideon W. H. Mweresa among others.

Mysticism and Social Change Alton Brooks Pollard, 1992
Academics and activists alike have long dismissed mysticism as an otherworldly and escapist form of religion. Alton B. Pollard III, in a ground breaking study of the noted African American mystic Howard Thurman, presents an analysis of religious experience that challenges prevailing interpretations of mysticism and social change. Drawing on perspectives from sociology, phenomenology, and history, the author examines the meaning of mystical religion for the underside of contemporary American society. What he uncovers is significant: an activist form of mysticism compelled by the dictates of spiritual experience that defies social conventions and engenders social change.

An Introduction to the Study of Mysticism
Richard H. Jones, 2021-12-01 2022 CHOICE Outstanding Academic Title. The purpose of this book is to fill a gap in contemporary mystical studies: an overview of the basic ways to approach mystical experiences and mysticism. It discusses the problem of definitions of mystical experiences and mysticism and advances characterizations of mystical experiences in terms of certain altered states of consciousness and mysticism in terms of encompassing ways of life centered on such experiences and states. Types of mystical experiences, enlightened states, paths, and doctrines are discussed, as is the relation of mystical experiences and mysticism to religions and cultures. The approaches of constructivism, contextualism, essentialism, and perennialism are presented. Themes in the history of the world's major mystical traditions are set forth. Approaches to mystical phenomena in sociology, psychology, gender studies, and neuroscience are introduced. Basic philosophical issues related to whether mystical experiences are veridical and mystical claims valid, mystics' problems of language, art, and morality are laid out. Older and newer comparative approaches in religious studies and in Christian theology are discussed along with postmodernist objections. The intended audience is undergraduates and the general public interested in the general issues related to mysticism.

III,2017-07-03 Most white philosophers of religion generally presume that philosophy of religion is based on what is a false universality whereby the white Western experience is paradigmatic of humanity at large The fact remains that Howard Thurman James H Cone and William R Jones among others have produced a substantial amount of theological work quite worthy of consideration by philosophers of religion Yet this corpus of thought is not reflected in the scholarly literature that constitutes the main body of philosophy of religion Neglect and ignorance of African American Studies is widespread in the academy By including chapters on Thurman Cone and Jones the present book functions as a corrective to this scholarly lacuna Howard Thurman Kipton E.
