Mysticism and Social Transformation Janet K. Ruffing, 2001-02-01 Where do Mysticism and and political action meet How does faith empower its adherents to resist oppression What are the origins of authentic contemporary mysticism From the thirteenth century Franciscan movement to African American mystics this wide ranging volume of essays considers exemplars of Christian mysticism including Teresa of Avila Ignatius of Loyola the Quakers and the Society of Friends whose practices and influence brought about social change Linking major conceptual issues and social theory the essays examine the historical impact of mysticism in contemporary life and argue for a hermeneutical approach to mysticism in its historical context The contributors look at how mystical empowerment can serve as a catalyst for expressing compassion in acts of justice and long term social change We learn how Sojourner Truth and Rebecca Cox Jackson driven by mystical experiences to take up lives of preaching faced the same misogynistic religious environments as did women mystics throughout history which has submerged this key area of women s experience The final two essays describe the development of socially engaged Buddhism in Asia and America and the mystical roots of deep ecology

Between the 'Mysticism of Politics' and the 'Politics of Mysticism' David Ranson, 2013-08-31 Between the Politics of Mysticism and the Mysticism of Politics traces the dialectic of the mystical and

This book challenges experiential esoteric and colloquial understandings of mysticism by bringing a fresh relevance to the term through an interdisciplinary dialogue between literature mysticism and theology in the context of postmodernity In order to achieve this the author takes selected writings of Iris Murdoch Denise Levertov and Annie Dillard and incorporates them into various stages of a redesigned mystic way The fourteenth century mystic Julian of Norwich is invoked throughout as a role model whom these three writers seek to emulate as popular writers contemplatives and theologians As theologians who are concerned with the pressing issues of our age Grace Jantzen Dorothee Soelle and Sallie McFague are drawn on as conversation partners to complete the three way discussion The author maintains that understanding the writing and reading of creative texts in the context of practical mysticism facilitates an integrated approach to the use of literature for theological expression
