Mysticism And The Doctrine Of Atonement:

The Essentials of Mysticism and Other Essays Evelyn Underhill, 1920 An enduring collection of articles that shows how we can unite practical concerns with a spiritual dimension Copyright Libri GmbH All rights reserved The Essentials of Mysticism Evelyn Underhill, 2017-03-02 Offering different essays of the practice of mysticism Underhill gives a thorough treatment of the practice that relies on experience rather than logic to justify the matters of faith While a dangerous path to follow as it can quickly lead to paths away from God this thinking is valid to a point in that we must be able to experience the fullness of God in some way to be fully alive in the realization of who God the Father is Evelyn Underhill Annice Callahan, 1997 This book explores Evelyn Underhill's spirituality for daily living by describing aspects of her life and writings that are relevant for contemporary Christians in their daily living It combines scholarly research and pastoral applications The first part focuses on three influences on her life experiences and images her study of the mystics and her work with spiritual guides The second part discusses Underhill's spirituality for daily living based on a study of her letters retreats and other spiritual writings The third part presents her legacy for the third millennium her study of mysticism her spiritual guidance and her spirituality for daily living This work highlights aspects of her life with which readers may identify for example her own return to the Anglican communion after fourteen years her ecumenical dialogue with the Orthodox church and her lifelong attraction to the mystical and sacramental aspect of Roman Catholicism her study of Sufi mystics bringing her into interfaith dialogue her pacifist stance in World War II and her prophetic contribution to the Anglican church as a woman spiritual director retreat preacher theologian spiritual writer and spiritual resource for today The Quest George Robert Stow Mead, 1921 The Quest, 1920 Mysticism in Christianity William Kaye Fleming, 1913 George Matheson and Mysticism—A Biographical Study Scott S. McKenna, 2022-02-04 This book is a study on the life and mystical thought of George Matheson In the closing decades of the nineteenth century Matheson was a Church of Scotland minister at Innellan on the west coast of Scotland Matheson was of Highland descent and blind from the age of eighteen His spiritual journey included a distressing experience of atheism the attraction of Hegelian idealism and through the practice of silence and meditation on Scripture he wrote of the Eternal through mystical union Matheson has much to offer those interested in the inner life not least Christians in the Presbyterian tradition A Text-book of the History of Doctrines Karl Rudolf Hagenbach, 1862 A History of Christian Doctrines Karl Rudolf Hagenbach, 1881 Christian Mysticism William Ralph Inge, 1918 Personal Idealism and Mysticism William Ralph Inge, 1913 Juan de Valdés and the Origins of the Spanish and Italian Reformation José C. Nieto, 1970 Mystic Moderns James H. Thrall, 2020-01-21 Mystic Moderns examines the responses of three British authors Evelyn Underhill 1875 1941 May Sinclair 1863 1946 and Mary Webb 1881 1927 to the emerging modernity of the long early twentieth century moment encompassing the First World War As they explored divergent but overlapping understandings of what mystical experience might be these authors rejected claims that modernity's celebration of the secular and rational left no place for the mystical rather they countered sensitivity to a greater reality could both establish and validate personal agency and was integral to their identities as modern women. Their preoccupations with the dynamism of human connection drew on prevailing ideas of vital energy or life force developed by Arthur Schopenhauer and Henri Bergson in ways that channeled modernity's erotic energy of change. By using their fiction to describe new self-authenticating forms of mysticism separate from either the prevailing orthodoxy of establishment Christianity or the extreme heterodoxy of their era's enthusiasm for paranormal experimentation they also contributed to the rise of a generic concept of spirituality. Mystic Moderns thus offers historical perspective on contemporary claims for self-constructed non-institutional spiritual experience associated with the claim 'I'm spiritual not religious'. Working as they did within the shadow of the First World War Underhill, Sinclair and Webb were in the end attempting to determine what might be of authentic value for a modern age marked by ubiquitous death. While not themselves utopian authors each was touched by her era's complicated hunger for the best of all possible worlds. Their constructions of how an individual should be and act in the midst of modernity thus simultaneously projected visions of what that modernity itself should become.

The Christian Advocate, 1921 John Wesley, Natural Man, and the 'Isms' J. Robert Ewbank, 2009-06-05 John Wesley founder of the Methodist Church is one of the world's greatest religious figures. A practical rather than systematic theologian he wrote and preached for the common man. He is well known as a man of one book the Bible but he read like no other during his time. We are left with fourteen volumes of his works and eight each of his letters and journals. His brother became the troubadour of Methodism writing countless hymns. John also took classic Christian works and edited them for the common man to read. And if this were not enough he preached thousands of times both indoors and out. In John Wesley Natural Man and the Isms J. Robert Ewbank examines what Wesley thought about other religions. Did he think all religions were from God and therefore there was little difference between them or did he think that there is uniqueness in Christianity? Was he concerned about other philosophies and thoughts about religion popular in his day? What did he think about Natural Man, the Indians, the Deists, the Jews, the Roman Catholics and the Mystics? Were they also fine with him or did he discuss the differences between them revealing where he found them wrong? Furthermore, what did Wesley think about the possibility of salvation for all those who held to these other positions? Did he find that it is possible for them to be saved by a loving God or have they stepped outside of the bounds therefore requiring extreme difficulty to be saved? The Index, 1884 Hours with the mystics: a contribution to the history of religious opinion., revised by the author Robert Alfred Vaughan, 1880
