Movement John A. Saliba,1999 For Christians the first encounter with the New Age Movement may prove confusing On the one hand there is an attraction in New Age ideology and ritual practice but on the other this very attraction raises theological and pastoral questions for the Churches whose responses have been ambiguous and conflicting The author analyses the real challenge the New Age offers the Churches today and gives an overview of the way in which Christian groups have responded to it

Mysticism: A Study in Nature and Development of Spiritual Consciousness Evelyn Underhill, 2017-02-15 Remaining a classic in its field this book explains first how mysticism relates to such things as vitalism theology psychology symbolism and magic This treatment may seem unusual for Christian mysticism but it relates widely to the world as we know it and the different practices therein Part Two explores the awakening purification and illumination of yourself and gives solid groundwork for such things as voices visions dreams and other mystical experience The Churchman ,1927 Radical Wisdom Beverly Lanzetta, Lanzetta illuminates the transformative potential of the classical tradition of women mystics especially in light of contemporary violence against women around the world Focusing on the contemplative process as women s journey from oppression to liberation Lanzetta draws especially on the mysticism of Julian of Norwich and Teresa of Avila She lays out the contemplative techniques used by mystics to achieve their highest spiritual potential and also investigates how unjust social and political conditions afflict women s souls Lanzetta identifies a specific historical female mystical path the via feminina and draws contemporary conclusions for how women might understand their bodies their rights and their ethics Exploring Lost Dimensions in Christian Mysticism Louise Nelstrop, Simon D. Podmore, 2016-04-15 Mystical theology has developed through a range of meanings from the hidden dimensions of divine significance in the community s interpretation of its scriptures to the much later science of the soul s ascent into communion with God The thinkers and questions addressed in this book draws us into the heart of a complicated beautiful and often tantalisingly unfinished conversation continuing over centuries and often brushing allusively into parallel concerns in other religions Raising fundamental matters of epistemology representation metaphysics and divine reality contributors approach the mystical from postmodern feminist sociological and historical perspectives through thinkers such as Meister Eckhart Thomas Aquinas Catherine of Siena Ignatius of Loyola William James Evelyn Underhill Ernst Troeltsch Rudolf Otto Jacques Derrida Jean Luc Marion and Jean Louis Chr tien Medieval and early modern radical prophetic approaches are also explored This book includes new essays by Sarah Apetrei Tina Beattie Raphael Cadenhead Oliver Davies Philip Endean Brian FitzGerald Ann Loades George Pattison Simon D Podmore Joel D S Rasmussen and Johannes Zachhuber Psychology, Religion, and Spirituality James M. Nelson, 2009-02-27 Over a century ago psychologists who were fascinated with religion began to study and write about it Theologians and religious practitioners have responded to this literature producing a fascinating dialogue that deals with our fundamental und standings about the human person and our place in the world This book provides an introduction to the important conversations that have developed out of these interchanges The dialogue between psychology and religion is difficult to study for a number of reasons First it requires knowledge of both psychology and religion People with a background in psychology often lack a solid understanding of the religious traditions they wish to study and theologians may not be up to date on the latest developments in psychology Second it requires conceptual tools to organize the material and understand the basic problems involved in any attempt to connect the science of psychology with religion. These concepts can be found in many places for instance in the writings of philosophers of science but they are complex and often hard to follow for those without a proper theological and philosophical background. Finally authors who write on the topic come to the study of psychology and religion from a variety of academic and personal backgrounds. This makes for wonderful diversity in conversations but it makes understanding and mastery of the material quite difficult. That Your Joy May Be Complete George A. Maloney, 1992-09 meditations on the Christian virtue of joy Christianity and Ecological Theology E. M. Conradie, 2006-10-01 There has been a proliferation of publications in the field of Christian ecological theology over the last three decades or so. These include a number of recent edited volumes each covering a range of topics and consolidating many of the emerging insights in ecological theology. The call for Christian churches to respond to the environmental crisis has been reiterated numerous times in this vast corpus of literature also in South Africa. Readings in Christian Ethics David K. Clark, Robert V. Rakestraw, 1994 Ethical interpretations meet real life. Case studies and readings explore divergent views on morals in action. Christ's Body Sarah Beckwith, 2005-08-04 Through her fascinating series of readings of texts such as The Book of Margery Kempe Beckwith develops a materialist analysis of religious texts showing the vital cultural work they do.
