Meditation and Culture Halvor Eifring, 2015-09-24 Behind the stereotype of a solitary meditator closing his eyes to the world meditation always takes place in close interaction with the surrounding culture Meditation and Culture The Interplay of Practice and Context explores cases in which the relation between meditative practice and cultural context is particularly complex The internationally renowned contributors discuss practices that travel from one culture to another or are surrounded by competing cultures They explore cultures that bring together competing practices or that are themselves mosaics of elements of different origins They seek to answer the question What is the relationship between meditation and culture The effects of meditation may arise from its symbolic value within larger webs of cultural meaning as in the contextual view that still dominates cultural and religious studies They may also be psychobiological responses to the practice itself the cultural context merely acting as a catalyst for processes originating in the body and mind of the practitioner Meditation and Culture gives no single definitive explanation but taken together the different viewpoints presented point to the complexity of the relationship Freunde, Gönner und Getreue Bernadette Descharmes, Eric Anton Heuser, Caroline Krüger, Thomas Loy, 2011 English summary Close relationships that go beyond family ties and kinships have become an interdisciplinary research subject that has received a lot of attention Variations of social ties such as friendship patronage and social networks ensue from different historical and cultural contexts and hence constitute a significant yet

Towards a Science of Belief Systems E. Griffiths, 2014-09-29 People believe in a great many things and yet most of us know almost nothing about why other people believe what they do or indeed about how it feels to believe it This book presents an objective method for understanding and comparing belief systems irrespective of whether the investigator happens to agree with them Democracy, Corruption and the Politics of Spirits in Contemporary Indonesia Nils Bubandt, 2014-06-05 Indonesia has been an electoral democracy for more than a decade and yet the political landscape of the world's third largest democracy is as complex and enigmatic as ever The country has achieved a successful transition to democracy and yet Indonesian democracy continues to be flawed illiberal and predatory This book suggests that this and other paradoxes of democracy in Indonesia often assume occult forms in the Indonesian political imagination and that the spirit like character of democracy and corruption traverses into the national media and the political elite Through a series of biographical accounts of political entrepreneurs all of whom employ spirits in various but always highly contested ways the book seeks to provide a portrait of Indonesia's contradictory democracy contending that the contradictions that haunt democracy in Indonesia also infect democracy globally Exploring the intimate ways in which the world of politics and the world of spirits are entangled it argues that Indonesia's seemingly peculiar problems with democracy and spirits in fact reflect a set of contradictions within democracy itself Engaging with recent attempts to look at contemporary politics through the lens of the occult Democracy Corruption and the Politics of Spirits in Contemporary Indonesia will be of interest to academics in the fields of Asian Studies Anthropology and Political Science and relevant for the study of Indonesian politics and for debates about democracy in Asia and beyond Envisioning Eden Noel B. Salazar, 2010-11-01 As tourism service standards become more homogeneous travel destinations worldwide are conforming yet still trying to maintain or even increase their distinctiveness Based on more than two years of fieldwork in Yogyakarta Indonesia and Arusha Tanzania this book offers an in depth investigation of the local to global dynamics of contemporary tourism Each destination offers examples that illustrate how tour guide narratives and practices are informed by widely circulating imaginaries of the past as well as personal imaginings of the future Challenging Islamic Orthodoxy Al Makin, 2016-09-22 This book is the first work that comprehensively presents the accounts of Lia Eden a former flower arranger who claims to have received divine messages from the Archangel Gabriel and founded the divine Eden Kingdom in her house in Jakarta This book places Lia Eden's prophetic trajectory in the context of diverse Indonesian spiritual and religious traditions by which hundreds of others also claimed to have been commanded by God to lead people and to establish religious groups This book offers a fresh approach towards the rich Indonesian religious and spiritual traditions with particular attention to the accounts of the emergence of indigenous prophets who founded some popular religions It presents the history of prophetic tradition which remains alive in Indonesian society from the colonial to reform period It also explores the ways in which these prophets rebelled against two hegemonies colonial power in the past and Islamic orthodoxy in the present The discussion of this book focuses on Lia Eden including her biography claims to prophethood and divinity the development of her group Eden Kingdom her challenge to Islamic orthodoxy under the banner of the MUI Indonesian Ulama Council her persecution by radical groups her experiences in court trials and imprisonment and public responses to her emergence The discussion also covers other themes currently drawing public attention in Indonesia such as pluralism religious freedom tolerance discrimination against minorities and secularisation Engaging the Spirit World Kirsten W. Endres, Andrea Lauser, 2012-03-01 In many parts of the contemporary world spirit beliefs and practices have taken on a pivotal role in addressing the discontinuities and uncertainties of modern life The myriad ways in which devotees engage the spirit world show the tremendous creative potential of these practices and their innate adaptability to changing times and circumstances Through in depth anthropological case studies from Indonesia Malaysia Thailand Myanmar Laos and Vietnam the contributors to this book investigate the role and impact of different social political and economic dynamics in the reconfiguration of local spirit worlds in modern Southeast Asia Their findings contribute to the re-enchantment debate by revealing that the spirited modernities that have emerged in the process not only embody a distinct feature of the contemporary moment but also invite a critical rethinking of the concept of modernity itself      The Routledge Companion to Digital Consumption Rosa Llamas, Russell Belk, 2013-05-07 The first generation that has grown up in a digital world is now in our university classrooms They their teachers and their parents have been fundamentally affected by the digitization of text images sound objects and signals They interact socially play games shop read write work listen to music collaborate produce and co produce search and browse very differently than in the pre digital age Adopting emerging technologies easily spending a large proportion of time online and multitasking are signs of the increasingly digital nature of our everyday lives Yet consumer research is just beginning to emerge on how this affects basic human and consumer behaviours such as attention learning communications relationships entertainment and knowledge The Routledge Companion to Digital Consumption offers an introduction to the perspectives needed to rethink consumer behaviour in a digital age that we are coming to take for granted and which therefore often escapes careful research and reflective critical appraisal
