Psychology Of The Home:

Psychology of the Home Barrie Gunter, 2000-01-10 The book works from the outside of the home to the inside. It begins by examining what psychological factors are linked to choice of neighbourhood and what types of property are favoured by different types of people. It then moves inside the home to examine what we can learn about occupants from the allocation of space, the use of rooms and the way rooms are decorated and furnished. Migration Trauma, Culture, and Finding the Psychological Home Within Grace P. Conroy, 2016-09-02 Migration Trauma Culture and Finding the Psychological Home Within is an in depth study of Eastern European migration to the United States. In presenting the clinical case studies of Eastern European migrants seeking long term psychoanalytic treatment, Grace Conroy pays particular attention to pre migration history, inner culture and early psychological development. Conroy details what is happening in the psyche of migrants who are in the process of integrating into new cultures, ultimately exploring the details and nuances of psychological struggles and transformations of the migratory process.

Home Environments Irwin Altman, Carol M. Werner, 2013-06-29 The present volume in the series focuses on homes, residences and dwellings. Although many fields have had a long standing interest in different aspects of home environments, the topic has recently come to the forefront in the interdisciplinary environment and behavior field. Researchers and theorists from many disciplines have begun to meet regularly, share ideas and perspectives and move the investigation of psychological, social and behavioral aspects of home environments to the central arena of environment and behavior studies. This volume, representative though not comprehensive, attempts to provide a sampling of contemporary perspectives on the study of home environments. As in previous volumes, the authors are drawn from a variety of disciplines including environmental design, fields of architecture and planning, and from the social science fields of psychology, sociology, anthropology and history. This diversity of authors and perspectives makes salient the principle that the study of homes in relation to behavior requires the contributions of many disciplines. Moreover, the chapters in this volume reflect an array of research and theoretical viewpoints, different scales of home environments (e.g. objects and areas, the home as a whole, the home as embedded in neighborhood and communities etc.), design and policy issues, and necessarily a comparative and cross cultural perspective. Home environments are at the core of human life in most cultures and it is hoped that the contributions to this volume display the excitement, potential and importance of research and theory on homes. Advances in Sport Psychology Thelma S. Horn, 2008 This third edition presents a thorough review of the literature and terminology in key topic areas. The clear explanation of potential research directions and the list of contributors make this a must have book for students of sport psychology.

Psychological Moments Ernest Adolphus Rayner, 1929 School and Home Education, 1891 Social Psychology in Sport Sophia Jowett, David Lavalley, 2007 The book is designed to allow readers to study issues in isolation or as part of a course or a module. The five main parts are Relationships in Sport, Coach Leadership and Group Dynamics, Motivational

Climate Key Social and Cognitive Processes in Sport and The Athlete in the Wider Sport Environment Each chapter is cross referenced and provides a clear description of the topic and a concise theoretical overview along with a discussion of existing research The chapters also introduce new research ideas suggest practical research applications and conclude with summaries and questions to help instructors engage the class in discussion and to help students follow the key points
