Medieval Art Second Edition Marilyn Stokstad, 2021-12-24 This beautifully produced survey of over a thousand years of Western art and architecture introduces the reader to a vast period of history ranging from ancient Rome to the age of exploration. The monumental arts and the diverse minor arts of the Middle Ages are presented here within the social, religious, and political frameworks of lands as varied as France and Denmark, Spain and Turkey. Marilyn Stokstad also teaches her reader how to look at medieval art which aspects of architecture, sculpture, or painting are important and for what reasons. Stylistic and iconographic issues and themes are thoroughly addressed with attention paid to aesthetic and social contexts

Italian Medieval Sculpture in the Metropolitan Museum of Art and the Cloisters Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), Lisbeth Castelnovo-Tedesco, Jack Soltanian, 2010 The collection of Italian medieval sculpture in The Metropolitan Museum of Art and The Cloisters began with the acquisition in 1908 of a Romanesque column statue. Today the Museum's holdings comprise more than seventy works dating from the ninth to the late fifteenth century. The birthplaces of these works range from Sicily to Venice; some typify local styles, others illustrate the intense artistic exchanges taking place within Italy and between Italy and the wider world. Technological advances of the last decades have made it possible to determine more precisely the materials and techniques from which works of art are made, the history of their alteration, and the mechanisms of their deterioration. Using such techniques, scholars have been able to ascertain, for example, that sculptures previously thought to be modern works carved in the medieval manner were in fact completely authentic. This innovative volume represents a watershed in the study of sculpture, a collaborative dialogue between an art historian and a conservator, between art history and art science, that deepens our understanding of the object we see while illuminating its elusive, enigmatic history. The Four Modes of Seeing Elizabeth Carson Pastan, 2017-07-05 Borrowing its title from Madeline Harrison Caviness's influential work on the modes of seeing articulated by the twelfth-century cleric Richard of Saint Victor, this interdisciplinary collection brings together the work of thirty scholars from England, France, Germany, Italy, Switzerland, and the United States. Each author has contributed an original article that engages with ideas formulated in Caviness's wide-ranging scholarship. The historiographic introduction discusses themes in Caviness's publications and their importance for art historical and medieval studies today The book's thematic matrix groups together essays concerned with The Material Object Documentary Reconstruction Post Disciplinary Approaches Multiple Readings Gender and Reception Performativity Text and Image Collecting and Consumption and Politics and Ideology The contributors include curators art historians historians and literary scholars Their subjects range from medieval stained glass to the nineteenth century Gothic Revival the Sachsenspiegel and Mel Gibson's The Passion of the Christ Many foreground issues of gender reception and textuality which have permeated Caviness's scholarship Some also present approaches to sites that have been the subject of important studies by Caviness including Canterbury Chartres Reims Saint Denis Sens and Troyes The volume offers a broad range of methodological approaches to key topics in the study of medieval imagery and thus highlights the vitality of the field today

Legends in Limestone Linda Seidel, 1999-10-15 Whereas twelfth century pilgrims flocked to the church of St Lazare in Autun to visit the relics of its patron saint present day pilgrims journey there to admire its superb sculpture said to have been created by the artist Gislebertus whose name is inscribed above one of the church doors These two cults of sculptor and of saint form points of departure and arrival for Linda Seidel's study Legends in Limestone reveals how Gislebertus sculptor was discovered and subsequently sanctified over the course of the last century Seidel makes a compelling case for the identification of the name with an ancestor of the local ducal family invoked for his role in the acquisition of the precious relics With the aid of evidence drawn from the richly carved decoration of the building she demonstrates how medieval visitors would have read a different holy narrative in the church fabric one that constructed before their eyes an account of their patron saint's life Legends in Limestone an absorbing study of one of France's most revered medieval monuments provides fresh insights into modern and medieval interpretive practices Handbook to Life in the Medieval World, 3-Volume Set Madeleine Pelner

Monstrous in the Sculpture of Twelfth-century Europe Kirk Ambrose, 2013 Richly illustrated consideration of the meaning of the carvings of non human beings from centaurs to eagles found in ecclesiastical settings Representations of monsters and the monstrous are common in medieval art and architecture from the grotesques in the borders of illuminated manuscripts to the symbol of the green man widespread in churches and cathedrals These mysterious depictions are frequently interpreted as embodying or mitigating the fears symptomatic of a dark age This book however considers an alternative scenario in what ways did monsters in twelfth century sculpture help audiences envision perhaps even achieve various ambitions Using examples of Romanesque sculpture from across Europe with a focus on France and northern Portugal the author suggests that medieval representations of monsters could service ideals whether intellectual political religious and social even as they could simultaneously articulate fears he argues that their material presence energizes works of art in paradoxical even contradictory ways In this way Romanesque monsters resist containment within modern interpretive categories and offer testimony to the density and nuance of the medieval imagination KIRK AMBROSE is Associate Professor Chair Department of Art and Art History University of Colorado Boulder Publications of the Metropolitan Museum of Art, 1964-2005
