Reframing remembrance Lisa Harper Campbell,2021-11-09 Reframing remembrance examines films about the Nazi Occupation of France charting how this period has been commemorated and how it has affected the articulation of French national identity The book proposes that 1995 marked the beginning of a new approach to commemoration reflected by socio political acts such as Jacques Chirac s July 1995 V l d Hiv speech and artistic acts most notably films set during the Occupation This is an approach that embraces critical engagement with history and its retelling With relevance to countries beyond France and events far removed from the Second World War Reframing remembrance highlights the need for ongoing honest remembrance and self reflection as cultural representations of history continue to shape contemporary views about nations identities and their global responsibilities

Jenny Lake

Guy Allen,2021-10-04 The plan started to form in the mind of Lucien Veneau the minute he picked up the piece of gold bearing rock from the muskeg south of Jenny Lake Little notice was taken when two Quebecois prospectors Lucien Veneau and Gerard Richard disappeared in the Foster Lakes country of Northern Saskatchewan The RCMP however became interested when a decomposed body was found in a nearby trapper's cabin Bonnie Sabreau hated her job She resented her brother talking her into leaving her comfortable life in Saskatoon to come work in this mining camp It was like a prison She couldn't leave or contact her family until they were allowed to go home at the end of the season Finally the Company pulled out tried to kill her and her partner and left them to fend for themselves After they escaped she lost no time in helping Detective Lucie Hansen and her assistants in locating and tracking down the managers of the mine This fast paced adventure takes you from the bush country of Northern Saskatchewan to the streets of Saskatoon and the Vancouver waterfront
