The Mini-Cycle Allan Weiss, 2021-05-06 While scholars have been studying the short story cycle for some time now this book discusses a form that has never before been identified and named let alone analyzed the mini cycle A mini cycle is a short story cycle made up in most cases of only two or three stories This study looks at mini cycles spanning the period from Anton Chekhov s little trilogy 1898 to the Alphinland stories in Margaret Atwood s Stone Mattress 2014 including texts by such authors as Stephen Leacock Alice Munro Robert Olen Butler and Clark Blaise Consideration is also given to marginal examples like Sherwood Anderson s Godliness A Tale in Four Parts 1919 which can be seen as one story or four distinct texts unified under one title and to what is called the exploded mini cycle one whose component stories are published with intervening stories between them rather than consecutively For each mini cycle the analysis is based on close reading of both the linking elements character imagery symbolism and so forth and the rhetorical and aesthetic effects of the mini cycle s being made up of distinct stories rather than constructed as one long narrative
