Poems Rainer Maria Rilke, 2015-07-23 Poems by Rainer Maria Rilke Translated by Jessie Lamont with an Introduction by H T The supreme problem of every age is that of finding its consummate artistic expression Before this problem every other remains of secondary importance History defines and directs its physical course science cooperates in the achievement of its material aims but Art alone gives to the age its spiritual physiognomy its ultimate and lasting expression The process of Art is on the one hand sensuous the conception having for its basis the fineness of organization of the senses and on the other hand it is severely scientific the value of the creation being dependent upon the craftsmanship the mastery over the tool the technique Art like Nature its great and only reservoir for all time past and all time to come ever strives for elimination and selection It is severe and aristocratic in the application of its laws and impervious to appeal to serve other than its own aims Its purpose is the symbolization of Life In its sanctum there reigns the silence of vast accomplishment the serene final and imperturbable solitude which is the ultimate criterion of all great things created To speak of Poetry is to speak of the most subtle the most delicate and the most accurate instrument by which to measure Life
