Red Tape In America Stories From The Front Line:

Red Tape in America Craig E. Richardson, Geoff C. Ziebart, 1995 Public Management and Performance Richard M. Walker, George A. Boyne, Gene A. Brewer, 2010-09-09 Public services touch the majority of people in advanced and developing economies on a daily basis children require schooling the elderly need personal care and assistance rubbish needs collecting water must be safe to drink and the streets need policing In short there is practically no area of our lives that isn't touched in some way by public services As such knowledge about strategies to improve their performance is central to the good of society In this book a group of leading scholars examine some of the most pressing issues in public administration political science and public policy by undertaking a systematic review of the research literature on public management and the performance of public agencies It is an important resource for public management researchers policy makers and practitioners who wish to understand the state of the field and the challenges that lie ahead Proliferation Threats and Missile Defense Responses United States. Congress. House. Committee on National Security. Subcommittee on Military Procurement, United States. Congress. House. Committee on National Security. Bryner, 1998 A comprehensive overview of the policy debates surrounding U S public lands and the natural resources they contain Bryner traces the origin and evolution of policy and the current debate in Congress and within the Clinton administration over public lands and natural resources He also assesses policy options in light of ecological principles and examines the importance of public lands and natural resources in the nation s environmental quality and in the quality of life the environment will provide for future generations This book will be a useful reference for policymakers environmental studies students and anyone concerned with the future of our public lands and natural resources

Ambush at Ruby Ridge Alan W. Bock, 1995 Examines the case of white supremacist Randy Weaver who became involved in a deadly shootout with federal agents in Idaho and charges the government with entrapment and murder

Confessions of a Civil Servant Bob Stone, 2003 Confessions of a Civil Servant is filled with lessons on leading change in government and the military Bob Stone based the book on thirty years as a revolutionary in government It comes at a time when the events of 9 11 are sharpening America s demands for government that works at all levels The book tackles fourteen overarching themes in government developed through entertaining stories of Stone s own experiences as a civil servant Among the topics Stone covers are tackling a job when you haven t a clue organizing for the mission dealing with difficult bosses and getting past the barriers to change This book is a must read for anyone in or considering taking a leadership position in government the military or any large organization public or private

The Oxford Handbook of Governance and Public Management for Social Policy Karen J. Baehler, 2023 Public administration plays an integral role at every stage of social policy creation and execution Program operators management decisions shape policymakers perceptions of what can and should be accomplished through social programs while public administrators wield considerable power to mobilize tangible and intangible resources and fill gaps in policy designs Furthermore the cumulative effects of public administrators daily activities directly influence outcomes for program participants and may shift policy itself Location also matters to social policy as those same administrators are expected to innovate continuously in response to shifting local and national conditions including changes in budgetary allocations client needs and capacities and public attitudes This Handbook will aim to capture what is being learned across six geographical regions Africa Asia Australasia Europe Latin America and the U S and Canada Specifically each regional section will contain 6 10 chapters canvassing a particular set of promising practices or emerging challenges at the regional or sub regional level in addition to a brief overview written by the section editor The regional sections will be flanked by integrative chapters As a whole the volume contains 65 chapters

The Company They Keep Charles Eric Schulzke,2002 Reformation in Foreign Missions Bob Finley,2005-04 After 57 years of service involving Asia Africa and Latin America a veteran missionary is calling for a reformation in the way foreign missionary work is done Bob Finley advocates the withdrawal of all American missionaries from foreign countries and recommends supporting indigenous missions instead He contends that there is no precedent for modern missions in the New Testament no mention of apostles going to work in foreign countries or anyone else being sent to serve where he did not know the local language This book is a must read for pastors missions committee members professors of missions and all other Christians who are interested in foreign missionary activities of American evangelicals Fair Labor Standards Act Reform United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Labor and Human Resources,1997 National Journal ,1995 Paper Trails Sarah B. Horton,Josiah Heyman,2020-07-17 Across the globe states have long aimed to control the movement of people identify their citizens and restrict noncitizens rights through official identification documents Although states are now less likely to grant permanent legal status they are increasingly issuing new temporary and provisional legal statuses to migrants Meanwhile the need for migrants to apply for frequent renewals subjects them to more intensive state surveillance The contributors to Paper Trails examine how these new developments change migrants relationship to state local and foreign bureaucracies The contributors analyze among other things immigration policies in the United Kingdom the issuing of driver s licenses in Arizona and New Mexico the Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals program and community know your rights campaigns By demonstrating how migrants are inscribed into official bureaucratic systems through the issuance of identification documents the contributors open up new ways to understand how states exert their power and how migrants must navigate new systems of governance Contributors Bridget Anderson Deborah A Boehm Susan Bibler Coutin Ruth Gomberg Mu oz Sarah B Horton Josiah Heyman Cecilia Menjivar Juan Thomas Ord ez Doris Marie Provine Nandita Sharma Monica Varsanyi
