Rediscovering Confucianism Torbjörn Lodén, 2021-10-01 This book provides an outline and an appraisal of Confucianism as a system of ideas and beliefs that evolved during the past 3 millennia and continue to do so. Its roots are traced back to pre Confucian times followed by a detailed examination of some 40 Confucian thinkers. It also describes the social context of evolution of Confucian thought.

The Politics of Peace Te-Li Lau, 2009-12-07 Although scholarship has noted the thematic importance of peace in Ephesians few have examined its political character in a sustained manner throughout the entire letter. This book addresses this lacuna comparing Ephesians with Colossians Greek political texts Dio Chrysostom's Orations and the Confucian Four Books in order to ascertain the rhetorical and political nature of its topos of peace. Through comparison with analogous documents both within and without its cultural milieu this study shows that Ephesians can be read as a politico religious letter concerning peace within the church. Its vision of peace contains common political elements such as moral education household management communal stability a universal humanity and war that are subsumed under the controlling rubric of the unity and cosmic summing up of all things in Christ.

Politics, Culture and Self Geir Helgesen,Søren Rishjerg Thomsen,2006 Globalization may be undermining Kipling s assertion that East is East and West is West but arguably this is more in the realms of technological advances and consumer behavior than political culture In the latter area much is still made of the contrasts between Eastern culture characterized by collectivism and belief in authority and Western culture characterized by individualism and belief in democracy Such comfortable assumptions will be shattered by readers of Politics

Culture and Self This volume indeed confirms that differences between East Asia and northern Europe do exist However it also points to major similarities e g regarding social harmony and the role of the family in society as well as significant contrasts mirrored within the two regions e g concerning interpersonal and institutional trust
