Mligo,2020-05-28 The question of contextual theology and its relevance to Africa in this time of globalization whereby there are rampant uncontrolled changes in cultures technologies economic policies and even people s religious lives is very urgent How is contextual theology relevant in the ever changing contexts of the church in Africa Indeed there are a number of challenges which contextual theology faces within the church in Africa which need to be addressed contextually Some such challenges include poverty rampant violence homosexuality alcoholism the resurgence of prosperity gospel materialistic prophets and incurable illnesses like Ebola HIV and AIDS and the current coronavirus COVID 19 However which context in Africa Context in Africa as in other parts of the world is always in flux it is complex and fluid There is no permanent context The experience of Jesus in such a changing context needs to be rediscovered depending on what transpires in each particular place at a particular time This book addresses some of the overarching challenges that face contextual theology and how such challenges should be addressed by the church in Africa in contemporary ever changing context for it to be relevant in Africa It also highlights the need to move from liberation and inculturation theologies to reconstruction theology in dealing with the challenges of the current church Hence the book is important to students and scholars engaging in practical systematic biblical and contextual theologies in all their branches      Rediscovering the New Testament Church Anthony

The last century has witnessed a revival and renewal of trinitarian theology led initially by Karl Barth The legendary puzzles of trinitarian theology have become especially vexing in an era of changed philosophical and cultural categories and a host of religious thinkers in the last century have tried to reformulate the main lines of thought about God's trinitarian life. Theologian Stanley Grenz here tells this story of trinitarian theology reporting and analyzing the remarkable ferment in the discipline and discussing especially eleven theologians on such issues as God's inner life vs God's relationship to creation immanent and economic trinity social vs psychological analogies for the relationships within God the relationship between trinity and Christology the feminist critique of classical categories and how God's trinitarian life figures in evolution social justice and spirituality Grenz's Introduction places this ferment historically in the course of Christian thought from the patristic period to now while his Conclusion sets a future agenda for the doctrine and theology. Rediscovering New Testament Prayer John Koenig, 2004-04-09 John Koenig presents a rich variety of prayer practices that reflect the real prayer experience of Christ and his followers Recapturing the earliest believers extraordinary encounters with the Holy Koenig offers prayer as instruction for the mind renewal of the spirit and help in effecting positive change in one's life
