Rediscovering Scripture's Vision for Women Lucy Peppiatt, 2019-08-06 Does God call women to serve as equal partners in marriage and as leaders in the church With careful exegetical work Lucy Peppiatt considers relevant passages in Ephesians Colossians 1 Peter 1 Timothy and 1 Corinthians There she finds a story of God releasing women alongside men into all forms of ministry leadership work and service on the basis of character and gifting rather than biological sex Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 2000-06 The Rediscovered Writings of Rose Wilder Lane, Literary Journalist Amy Mattson Lauters, 2007-03-09 Through numerous short stories novels such as Free Land and political writings such as Credo Rose Wilder Lane forged a literary career that would be eclipsed by the shadow of her mother Laura Ingalls Wilder whose Little House books Lane edited Lane's fifty year career in journalism has remained largely unexplored This book recovers journalistic work by an American icon for whom scholarly recognition is long overdue Amy Mattson Lauters introduces readers to Lane's life through examples of her journalism and argues that her work and career help establish her not only as an author and political rhetorician but also as a literary journalist Lauters has assembled a collection of rarely seen nonfiction articles that illustrate Lane's talent as a writer of literary nonfiction provide on the spot views of key moments in American cultural history and offer sharp commentary on historical events Through this collection of Lane's journalism dating from early work for Sunset magazine in 1918 to her final piece for Woman's Day set in 1965 Saigon Lauters shows how Lane infused her writing with her particular ideology of Americanism and individualism self reliance and freedom from government interference thereby offering stark commentary on her times Lane shares her experiences as an extra in a Douglas Fairbanks movie and interviews D W Griffith She reports on average American women struggling to raise a family in wartime and hikes over the Albanian mountains between the world wars Her own maturing conservative political views provide a lens through which readers can view debates over the draft war and women's citizenship during World War II and her capstone piece brings us again into a culture torn by war this time in Southeast Asia These writings have not been available to the reading public since they first appeared They encapsulate important moments for Lane and her times revealing the woman behind the text the development of her signature literary style and her progression as a writer Lauters's introduction reveals the flow of Lane's life and career offering key insights into women's history the literary journalism genre and American culture in the first half of the twentieth century Through these works readers will discover a writer whose cultural identity was quintessentially American middle class midwestern and simplistic and who assumed the mantle of custodian to Americanism through women's arts The Rediscovered Writings of Rose Wilder Lane traces the extraordinary relationship between one woman and American society over fifty pivotal years and offers readers a treasury of writings to enjoy and discuss Rediscovering Frank Yerby Matthew Teutsch, 2020-04-20 Contributions by Catherine L Adams Stephanie Brown Gene Andrew Jarrett John Wharton Lowe Guirdex Mass Anderson Rouse Matthew Teutsch Donna lyn

Washington and Veronica T Watson Rediscovering Frank Yerby Critical Essays is the first book length study of Yerby s life and work The collection explores a myriad of topics including his connections to the Harlem and Chicago Renaissances readership and reception representations of masculinity and patriotism film adaptations and engagement with race identity and religion The contributors to this collection work to rectify the misunderstandings of Yerby s work that have relegated him to the sidelines and ultimately begin a reexamination of the importance of the prince of pulpsters in American literature It was Robert Bone in The Negro Novel in America who infamously dismissed Frank Yerby 1916 1991 as the prince of pulpsters Like Bone many literary critics at the time criticized Yerby s lack of focus on race and the stereotypical treatment of African American characters in his books This negative labeling continued to stick to Yerby even as he gained critical success first with The Foxes of Harrow the first novel by an African American to sell more than a million copies and later as he began to publish more political works like Speak Now and The Dahomean However the literary community cannot continue to ignore Frank Yerby and his impact on American literature More than a fiction writer Yerby should be put in conversation with such contemporaneous writers as Richard Wright Dorothy West James Baldwin William Faulkner Margaret Mitchell and more

Spare Rib ,1982 A Fabulous Kingdom Charles Officer,Jake Page,2012-05-30 The second edition of A Fabulous Kingdom will explain the history of the arctic and describe the current scientific and environmental issues that threaten this fascinating region Five Hundred Years Rediscovered Natalie Swanepoel,Amanda Esterhuysen,Phil Bonner,2008-08-01 In the age of the African Renaissance southern Africa has needed to reinterpret the past in fresh and more appropriate ways The last 500 years represent a strikingly unexplored and misrepresented period which remains disfigured by colonial apartheid assumptions most notably in the way that African societies are depicted as fixed passive isolated un enterprising and unenlightened This period is one the most formative in relation to southern Africa s past while remaining in many ways the least known Key cultural contours of the sub continent took shape while in a jagged and uneven fashion some of the features of modern identities emerged Enormous internal economic innovation and political experimentation was taking place at the same time as expanding European mercantile forces started to press upon southern African shores and its hinterlands This suggests that interaction flux and mixing were a strong feature of the period rather than the homogeneity and fixity proposed in standard historical and archaeological writings Five Hundred Years Rediscovered represents the first step taken by a group of archaeologists and historians to collectively reframe revitalise and re examine the last 500 years By integrating research and developing trans frontier research networks the group hopes to challenge thinking about the region s expanding internal and colonial frontiers and to broaden current perceptions about southern Africa s colonial past

Women, War, Domesticity Nicole Huang,2005-03-01 In December 1941 the fifth year in an all scale cataclysmic Sino Japanese war that devoured much of Eastern China the city of Shanghai entered into an era of full occupation This was the moment when a group of young women authors began writing and soon took over the cultural scene of the besieged metropolis Women War Domesticity reconstructs cultures of reading writing and publishing in the city of Shanghai during the three years and eight months of Japanese occupation It specifically depicts the formation of a new cultural arena initiated by a group of women who not only wrote edited and published but also took part in defining and transforming the structure of modern knowledge discussing it in various public forums surrounding the print media and consequently promoting themselves as authoritative cultural commentators of the era
