Redundant Counties:

Local Government Today J. A. Chandler, 2001 Local Government Today provides a comprehensive analysis of the structure finance management and democratic framework for local government in Britain This new edition includes the changes made by Tony Blair s government and an evaluation in a comparative context of the value and effectiveness of the system A new feature is a running commentary that puts the British system in comparative context and provides basic information on how local government operates in the European Union and the Unites States Directory of European political scientists European Consortium for Political Research, University of Essex. Compiled and ed. by the Central Services of the ECPR, 2016-11-07 No detailed description available for Directory of European political scientists Local Power, Territory and Institutions in European Metropolitan Regions Bernard Jouve, Christian Lefevre, 2013-10-11 A comparative analysis of eight different urban areas Bologna Bordeaux Geneve Lausanne Lyons Manchester Rotterdam Stuttgart and Torino examining key urban issues that are high on the policy agenda of every national government

Proceedings of the 25th International Symposium on Advancement of Construction Management and Real Estate Xinhai Lu, Zuo Zhang, Weisheng Lu, Yi Peng, 2021-10-11 This proceedings book focuses on innovation cooperation and sustainable development in the fields of construction management and real estate The book provides a detailed analysis and description of the disciplinary frontiers in the field of building management and real estate and how they can be promoted in the context of the epidemic A wide variety of papers provide a reference value for both scholars and practitioners The proceedings book is the documentation of the 25th International Symposium on Advancement of Construction Management and Real Estate CRIOCM 2020 which was held at the School of Public Administration Central China Normal University Wuhan China in 2020 Redundancy, Community and Heritage in the Modern Church of England, 1945-2000 Denise Bonnette, 2023-02-28 This book is a reappraisal of Anglican Church redundancy from a cultural perspective It challenges long held perceptions about the rationale for church redundancy particularly secularisation It argues that redundancy brought to the surface far reaching social and cultural tensions that remain unresolved to this day and which the pandemic closure of buildings has reignited The Nineteenth Century and After, 1915 Making Tracks Iain Docherty, 2018-10-26 First published in 1999 this book contains case studies of rail transport policy making in two UK Passenger Transport Authority areas and reviews the factors informing such policy making It contributes to transport geography by explaining why the actual policies implemented in Strathclyde and Merseyside were pursued and to the continuing development of the political science theory of the urban policy regime by analysing the differences in policy development attributable to the different city regional Strathclyde and public choice Merseyside geographical structures of local governance The book demonstrates that these differences in the spatial organisation of local institutions play a powerful role in determining the operation of the local regime of policy makers the form of final policy outputs and the level of public accountability achieved Redundancy in

 Recruitment to legislative office is one of the core functions of political systems yet we know little about how the process varies from one country to another Passages to Power provides a comparative account of legislative recruitment which applies a common analytical framework and new survey data to nineteen advanced democracies
 Legislative recruitment refers to the critical step as people move from lower levels of politics into parliamentary careers Who succeeds in becoming a politician Who fails And why Based on original research which adopts a new institutionalist perspective this 1997 book compares these issues in a wide range of countries This important study brings together an outstanding group of international scholars to look at recruitment around the world The countries examined in depth include Australia Canada Finland Germany Japan the Netherlands New Zealand the United Kingdom and the United States along with a comparison of all member states in the European Union A Contrived Countryside Keith Hoggart, 2021-03-26
 This book shows how governance regimes before the 1970s suppressed rural prospects of housing improvement and created conditions for middle class capture Using original archival sources to reveal the intricacies of local and national policy processes weak rural housing performances are shown to owe more to national governance regimes than local underperformance Looking behind the scenes at policy processes highlights neglected principles in national governance and shows how investigating rural housing is fundamental to understanding the national scene With original insights and a new analytical perspective this volume offers evidence and conclusions that challenge mainstream assumptions in public policy housing rural studies and planning Pushing Back the Boundaries Mike Mannin, 1999
 Missionary families were an integral component of the missionary enterprise both as active agents on the global religious stage and as a force within the enterprise that shaped understandings and theories of mission itself Taking the family as a legitimate unit of historical analysis in its own right for the first time Missionary families traces changing familial policies and lived realities throughout the nineteenth century and powerfully argues for the importance of an historical understanding of the missionary enterprise informed by the complex interplay between the intimate the personal and the professional By looking at marriage parenting and childhood along with professionalism vocation and domesticity this first in depth study of missionary families reveals their profound importance to the missionary enterprise and concludes that mission history can no longer be written without attention to the personal emotional and intimate aspects of missionary lives Reports from Committees Great Britain.
