Leadership

for Healthcare Jean Hartley, John Benington, 2015-07-01 It is vital for healthcare leaders to have a clear sense of which leadership ideas and practices are rooted in sound theory and convincing evidence and which are more speculative This book provides a coherent set of six lenses through which to scrutinise the leadership literature relevant to healthcare leadership concepts characteristics contexts challenges capabilities and consequences It offers a view of leadership beyond the traditional focus on the individual and argues instead that leadership has to be understood and developed as a complex set of practices by many people within specific organisational and inter organisational contexts and cultures EBOOK: Patient Safety: Research into Practice Kieran Walshe, Ruth Boaden, 2005-11-16 Winner of the Basis of Medicine Award in the BMA Book Medical Book Competition 2006 In many countries during the last decade there has been a growing public realization that healthcare organisations are often dangerous places to be Reports published in Australia Canada New Zealand United Kingdom and the USA have served to focus public and policy attention on the safety of patients and to highlight the alarmingly high incidence of errors and adverse events that lead to some kind of harm or injury This book presents a research based perspective on patient safety drawing together the most recent ideas and thinking from researchers on how to research and understand patient safety issues and how research findings are used to shape policy and practice The book examines key issues including Analysis and measurement of patient safety Approaches to improving patient safety Future policy and practice regarding patient safety The legal dimensions of patient safety Patient Safety is essential reading for researchers policy makers and practitioners involved in or interested in patient safety The book is also of interest to the growing number of postgraduate students on health policy and health management programmes that focus upon healthcare quality risk management and patient safety Contributors Sally Adams Tony Avery Maureen Baker Paul Beatty Ruth Boaden Tanya Claridge Gary Cook Caroline Davy Susan Dovey Aneez Esmail Rachel Finn Martin Fletcher Sally Giles John Hickner Rachel Howard Amanda Howe Michael A Jones Sue Kirk Rebecca Lawton Martin Marshall Caroline Morris Dianne Parker Shirley Pearce Bob Phillips Steve Rogers Richard Thomson Charles Vincent Kieran Walshe Justin Waring Alison Watkin Fiona Watts Liz West Maria Woloshynowych Knowledge to Action? Sue Dopson, Louise Fitzgerald, 2005-05-12 Health services can and should be improved by applying research findings about best practice Yet in Knowledge to Action the authors explore why it nevertheless proves notoriously difficult to implement change based on research evidence in the face of strong professional views and complex organizational structures The book draws on a large body of evidence acquired in the course of nearly fifty in depth case studies following attempts to introduce evidence based practice in the UK NHS over more than a decade Using qualitative methods to study hospital and primary care settings they are able to shed light on why some of these attempts succeeded where others faltered By opening up the intricacies and complexities of change in the NHS they reveal the limitations of the simplistic approaches to implementing research or introducing evidence based health care A unique synthesis of evidence the book brings together data from 1 400 interviews with doctors nurses and managers as well as detailed observations and documentary analysis The authors provide an analysis rooted in a range of theoretical perspectives that underlines the intimate links between organizational structures and cultures and the utilization of knowledge and draws conclusions which will be of significance for other areas of public management Their findings have implications for the utilization of knowledge in situations where there is a professional tradition working within a politically sensitive blend of public service managerial accountability and technical expertise Knowledge to Action will be of interest to Academics Researchers and Advanced Students of Organizational Behaviour Public and Health Management and Evidence Based Medicine and also of particular interest to Practitioners Clinicians and Public Health Managers concerned with implementing change to clinical practice
